Business Analyst

Responsibilities:

- Proactive analysis of the consumer banking portfolio to identify business opportunities to grow

- Data mining across all available banking data

- Active communication with senior management, product and portfolio managers

- Setting up campaign processes including its tracking and evaluations

- Design and utilization of propensity and scoring models

- Cooperates on business intelligence processes improvements and optimizations

- Responsible for identification and covering of gaps between business users needs and data sources available

Requirements:

- University degree (technical or economics)

- Financial and banking background

- Strong analytical skills

- Knowledge of relational databases and SQL (basic knowledge at least)

- Good knowledge of business intelligence architecture

- Experience with analytical/data mining tool is advantage

- English on communicative level

- Team player, high energy level, dynamic and flexible

We offer:

- Perspective job and professional growth within international company

- Interesting work in dynamic team

- Competitive package

Contact: Pavel Paseka, pavel.paseka@citi.com

Tel. 233062924