

XPJ PRES Presenting internationally

This is a new course open only for exchange students as there was a high demand for it. Improve your presentation skills and handle various presentation formats which you will need for your studies and professional career as well!

XPX ACAD Academic writing

Academic writing course is offered to Master students. It is a preparation for writing the diploma thesis and other academic texts. In this course, you will learn to analyse and critique texts written by others, produce texts that you actually need in your thesis and learn to cite other people's work and avoid plagiarism.

BPV EUPP European Union Public Policy

This course is taught by prof. John Wilton, a visiting professor from the UK. It is a block course taught only for 3 days in November/December. Explore the powers and parameters of the European Union in setting Public Policy agendas!

BPM ST1A Statistics 1

Statistics is a very useful course especially if you need to process some data for your final thesis.