

Load of e-sources at the FEA MU

Cheat sheet to the electronic information CSI 2018++ for teachers and students
(no need to hide under a desk)

Golden edition

Searcher (EDS) – The master of all the information, searches all at once (besides specialities on the right side)

Databases of scientific journals:

EBSCO Academic Search Ultimate, SpringerLINK, Wiley Online Library, Elsevier ScienceDirect, EconLit with Full Text, ProQuest Central

E-books: EBSCO eBook Academic Collection

Citation indexes:

Web of Science, Scopus

Specialities

OECD iLibrary – statistical database, online books and OECD journals

PressReader – magazines and newspapers from the whole world

Bisnode MagnusWeb – everything about firms, institutions and municipalities in Czech republic

News 2018

Emerald Managements – the collection of journals in which you surely want to publish too

JSTOR – all collections Arts & Science

New journal subscriptions (SSH):

Taylor & Francis, Cambridge, Sage, Central & Eastern European Online Lib.

Economic e-books – 2,821 books from Elsevier, Springer, T&F, Wiley

Coming soon

The Economist Historical Archive – complete journal archive since 1843

Oxford Handbooks Online – handbooks from economics, finance and management

ProQuest Ebooks Central – we will purchase the most read economic and similar books

T&F Journal Classic Archive SSH – all issues from the first one until 1996

Encyclopedia Wiley – theory, methods etc.

Advantage Analysis – stock exchange platform ("smaller" Bloomberg)

Other

Remote access – instructions on access from home or travels

If anything is not clear, feel free to ask at knihovna@econ.muni.cz

The time has changed: no answers, just links ...