

Session Overview | Internationalisation for lecturers | 2021-22

SESSION	TRAINERS
Session 1: 8 October 2021 How internationalisation-ready are you? Reflecting. Focus: introduction to course, cultural perspectives and their influence on our teaching.	Eva Haug: Amsterdam UAS Jessica Shinnick: Rotterdam UAS
Session 2: 15 October 2021 How internationalisation-ready is your programme? Mapping. Focus: Internationalised curriculum - what is it and why is it important?	Eveke de Louw: The Hague UAS Jessica Shinnick: Rotterdam UAS
Session 3: 29 October 2021 How internationalisation-ready is your module? Designing. Focus: understanding how alignment can be achieved in teaching, learning, and assessment in the process of internationalising a module and its learning outcomes.	Marloes Ambagts: The Hague UAS Claudia Bulnes: The Hague UAS
Session 4: 12 November 2021 How internationalisation-ready is your classroom? Pedagogy. Focus: identifying strategies methods and tools that can be applied in the classroom.	Marloes Ambagts: The Hague UAS Eva Haug: Amsterdam UAS
Session 5: 26 November 2021 How globally connected are you? Design. Focus: virtual or online collaboration - what is it and how can it be integrated in your module?	Eva Haug: Amsterdam UAS Eveke de Louw: The Hague UAS
Session 6: 10 December 2021 How international is your assessment? Evaluating. Focus: direct and indirect forms of assessing international and intercultural competences - challenges & opportunities.	Claudia Bulnes: The Hague UAS Jessica Shinnick: Rotterdam UAS