

Publication prepared by a team of experienced snowboard instructors, teachers at the Faculty of Sports Studies. It is designed especially for students who learn snowboarding within their degree program, as a practical guide, it may serve a wide range of people interested in the foundations and methodology of teaching snowboarding. Those shows the basic teaching snowboarding stage, culminating in mastering driving in curves.