

Target of publication is basic biomechanics analysis of selected physical exercises. Publication is focused on students of physical education study programs.