

CONTENTS

Contents	VII
Preface	XI
1. Why Norms in Cyberspace?	I
Radim Polčák
2. Frontiers of Cyberspace-Subversive Potential of Cyberspace towards the State Especially the State Law	9
Martin Škop
3. How to Derive an “Ought” from a “Can’t”: Virtual Laws, Artificial Societies and the Idea of Designing out Crime in Cyberspace	15
Nicholas Gervassis and Burkhard Schafer
4. Code, Cyberspace and Human Rights	23
Karol Dobrzeński
5. Enforcing Solidarity through Cybermoney: A Critique of the Dominant Economic Theory and Practise	29
Franz Aigner and Max Watzenboeck
6. Jurisdiction and Applicable Law on the Internet	37
Michael Bogdan

VIII CONTENTS

7. Geo-location Technologies: A Brief Overview	45
Dan Svantesson
8. Internet Governance: New Needs of a Changing World	55
Peter Lenda
9. Internet: Regulation of Cyberspace	65
Martin Plíšek and Bohumír Štědroň
10. Legal Norms Regulating the use of Free Software in the Italian P.A.'s.	73
Marina Pietrangelo
11. The Software as an Object of Legal Relationships in Private Law	79
Zdeněk Tobeš
12. The Function of the Theory of Law in the “Net of Nets”	87
Jaromír Harvánek and Roman Vaněk
13. Internet Piracy: The Fight Against a New Form of Infringement of Intellectual Property	93
Irini Vassilaki
14. Normative Systems and the Internet	99
Vladimír Smejkal
15. World Approaches towards the Child Pornography on the Internet	105
Michael Vrtek
16. Regulation vs. Liberalisation with Regard to the Legislation of the So-called Common Ownership	111
Petr Havlan
17. Threats of Electronic Communications	121
Pavel Šejnoha

PREFACE

- 18. Information Systems Certification:
A Prerequisite of Their Profound Exploitation. 129
Václav Sedláček
- 19. Cyber Adversary Behavior From A Socio-Cognitive Perspective:
A Fused Analysis 133
Meera Sarma and N. Balakrishnan
- 20. Cybersex as the Form of the Internet Communication:
Motivation of the Users 149
Radana Divinová
- 21. Life Field, Europeanisation, Globalization and Cyberspace 155
Petr Sak