

PhD Philosophy - Illustration of a study progress

- during the whole study the minimum of 240 credits (cr) is obligatory, i.e. 30 cr per semester on average, as illustrated below
- each semester at least 20 cr must be obtained to be allowed for registration to the next semester
- Doctoral Exam after the 6th semester (the earliest time), but not later than the 4th year of study (i.e. after the 8th semester)
- before Doctoral Exam many courses e.g. Doctoral Seminars must be completed, cf. so-called Control Template

- obligatory courses – most fixed position within the study progress; ‘block of seminars’, ‘block of duties’, ‘block of outcomes’
- semi-eligible course – middle fixed position; courses eligible from blocks (A) and (B) (see below); ‘block of eligible courses’
- eligible courses – highly flexible position; fully eligible courses; ‘block of eligible courses’
