

Virtues and Action in Philosophy of the 18th Century

October 30-31, 2020,

Institute of Philosophy, C.A.S. / University of Hradec Králové

Friday (October 30)

15:30-16:20 CET

Lorenzo Greco (Uni. Oxford/Uni. of Hradec Králové/Uni. of l'Aquila)

The Role of Reflection in Hume's Ethics

16:30-17:20 CET

Adéla Rádková (ISTR, Prague)

Coping with the Confessional Divide: Tolerance as an Artificial Virtue

17:30-18:20 CET

Marek Tomeček (University of Hradec Králové/CTU, Prague)

Pride as a Vice and Virtue

Saturday (October 31)

10:00-10:50 CET

Josef Moural (J.E. Purkyně University, Ústí nad Labem)

Learning and Conversation in 'Of Essay Writing'

11:00-11:50 CET

Hynek Janoušek (Institute of Philosophy, Prague)

Sympathy, Quality, and Liveliness in Hume's Treatise

13:30-14:20 CET

James Hill (Charles University, Prague)

Berkeley's Notion of the Good

14:30-15:20 CET

Filip Tvrký (Palacký University, Olomouc)

Humean Epistemology of Conspiracy Theories

The conference will be held on Zoom. If you want to attend write to janousek@flu.cas.cz to get a link.