Megfenyegették munkatársunkat, a Népszava elé vonulnak április 29-én

Jönnek a gój motorosok!

Ők ígérik, hogy április 29-én délelőtt a Népszava szerkesztősége elé vonulnak. Támadhat a motorizált erő?

Classical sociological and anthropological approaches:

- [The construction of collective identity is either naturally given or historically formed.
- [Collective identity is an independent ontological reality
- [Collective identity is secondary to power relations

The perspective of cultural sociology

- [The construction of collective identity constitutes a basic component of social life, like power or economic relations.
- [The social construction of boundaries
- [The social construction of trust and solidarity among the members of collectivity

THE AGE OF

1914-1991

ABACUS

History Greats

The context

- [Total wars and the cold war
- [World Revolution:
 - political, social, cultural
- [Economic Crisis and the fall of Liberalism
- [The end of Empires: Third world
- [The imperative of modernization

The Age of Total War

- [The society of C19 crumpled in the flames of a 31 years world war.
- [From July 1914 to August 1945 Europe was in war. The period between 1918-1938 was not really a peace. Europe lived and thought in terms of war in this period, too.
- [Discontinuity experienced in Central Europe (see Joseph Roth)

The trauma of the WW I

- [See Hobsbawm, The Age of Empire
- [German Blitzkrieg as a necessary strategy was blocked and the front became a massacre machine
 - Soldiers lived like rats, parapets, barbed wire, machine guns (Ernst Junger: "hurricane of steel")
 - Verdun, 1916 February-July 2 mil. Men battle 1 mil. Died 60000 Brits died on 1th day.

Cultural consequences

- [The experience of massacres helped to brutalize both warfare and politics
- [The shared experience of living with death created two “incommunicable” identities
 - A sense of meaninglessness and hatred of the war
 - A sense of courage and superiority to women and those who not fought

A penal peace: the Treaty of Versailles

- [Making the world safe from social revolution
 - The support of anti-Bolshevik nationalist local elites
- [Re-mapping Europe after the collapse of the Russian, Habsburg and Ottoman Empires
 - Creation of de jure nation-states which were de facto multinational states and multi ethno-linguistic societies

Fascist movements

- [The mobilization of masses
 - Reclassifying victims to superiors
 - Total transformation of society: adaptation of revolutionary rhetoric
- [The resentment of the little men
 - Anti-modernism and pro-technology

The World Revolution

- [Belief in universal emancipation and in the alternative path of modernization
 - Russia: vast, rural, pre-industrial country
- [The avant-garde of professional revolutionaries
 - Unconditional loyalty as alternative to mass parties
 - Urban intellectuals
