I enjoyed the block when we talked about different ways to present the same topic and how it is important to chose the right language different ways how to say one thing I mean description of the picture

The description of images as a way of demonstrating the importance of audience reception and feedback of a presentation and/or a written essay. Both the exercise and the subsequent explanation were nicely conceived to clearly demonstrate this logic. The analysis of the importance of the body language in its complexity was also very useful.
