What do you know about migration?

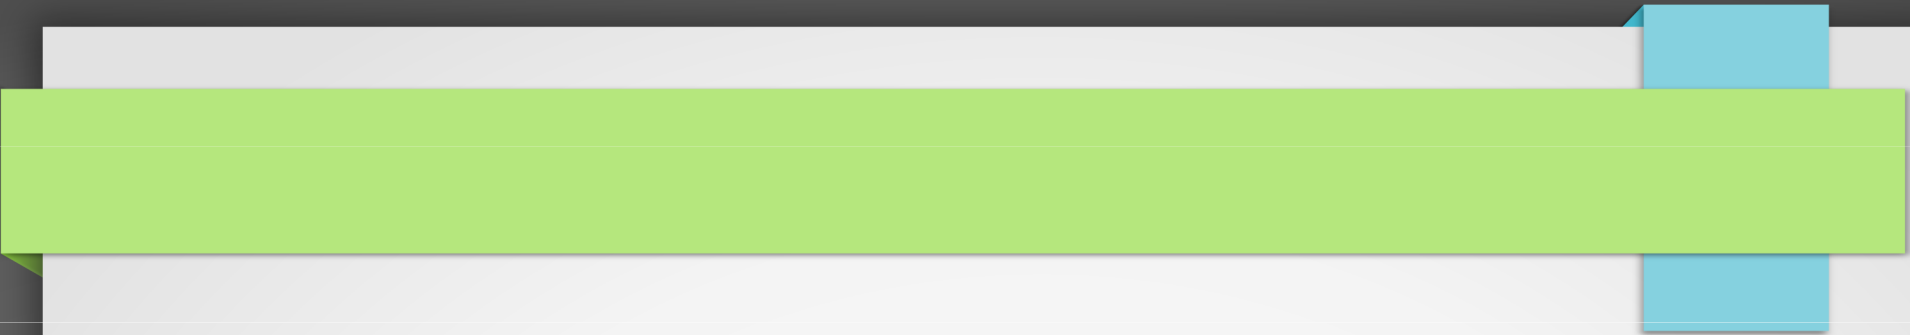

Have you ever been a migrant?

“We live in period of unprecedented migration”

Invasions of the Roman Empire

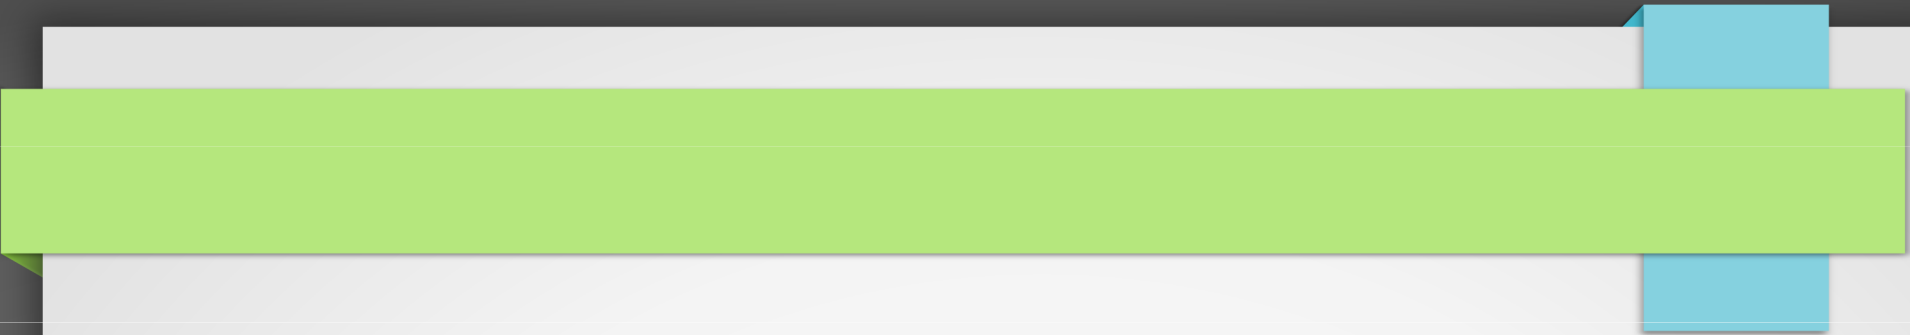

100 - 500 CE

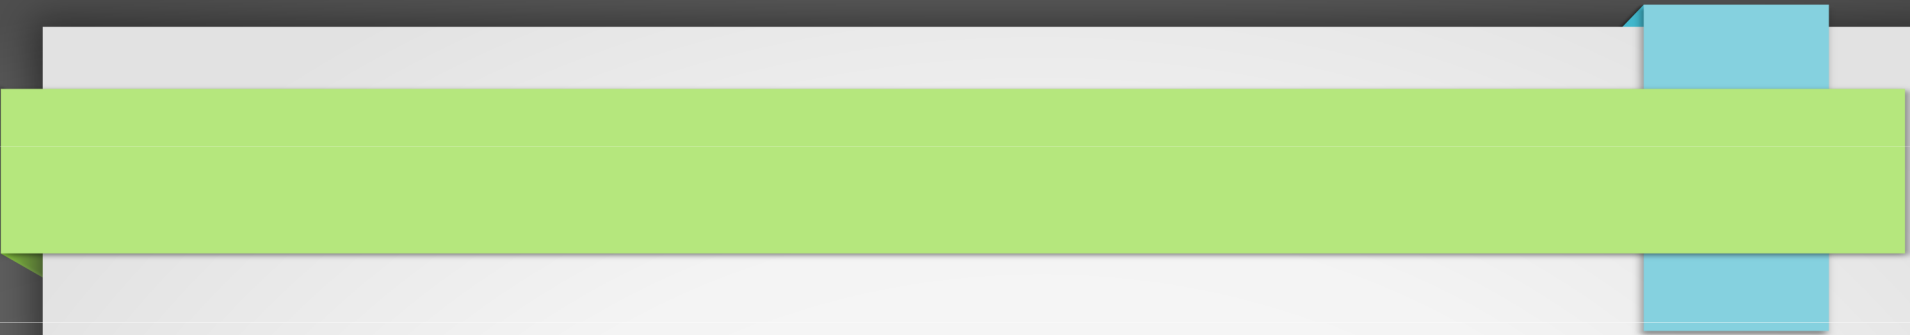

A person entering, staying or working in a country without the necessary authorization or documents required under immigration regulations.

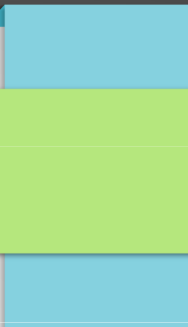

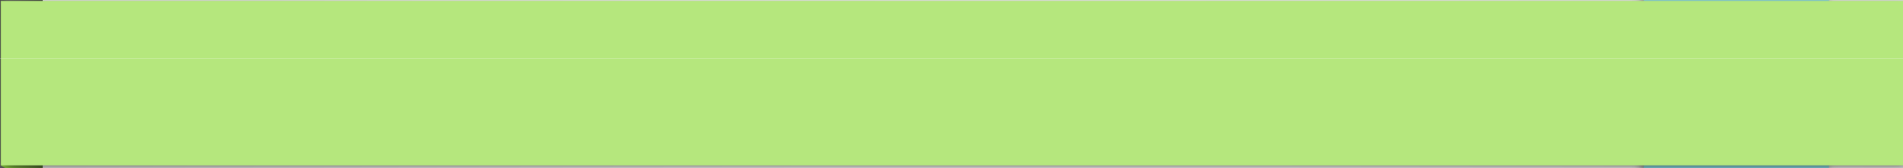

= irregular migrant

- Movement that takes place outside the regulatory norms of the sending, transit and receiving countries. There is no clear or universally accepted definition of irregular migration.
 - From the perspective of destination countries it is entry, stay or work in a country without the necessary authorization or documents required under immigration regulations.
 - From the perspective of the sending country, the irregularity is for example seen in cases in which a person crosses an international boundary without a valid passport or travel document or does not fulfill the administrative requirements for leaving the country.
 - There is, however, a tendency to restrict the use of the Person seeking safety from persecution or serious harm in a country other than his or her own and awaits a decision on the application for refugee status under relevant international and national instruments. In case of a negative decision, the person must leave the country and may be expelled, as may any non-national in an irregular or unlawful situation, unless permission to stay is provided on humanitarian or other related grounds.

= asylum seeker

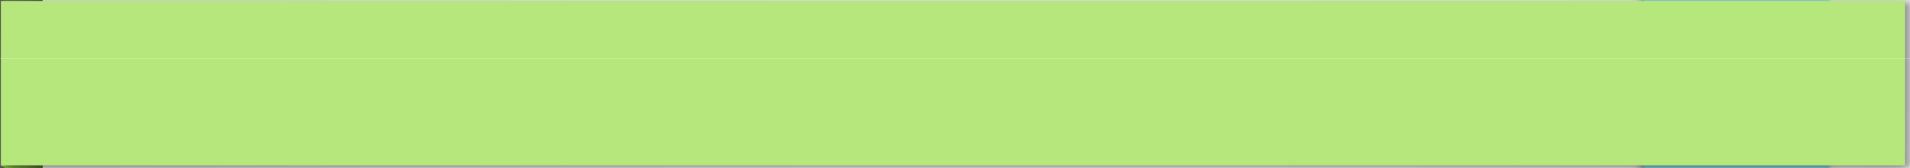

Person who, "owing to a well-founded fear of persecution for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinions, is outside the country of his nationality and is unable or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country."

= refugee

(Art. 1(A)(2), Convention relating to the Status of Refugees, Art. 1A(2), 1951 as modified by the 1967 Protocol).

- theories explaining international migration (contribution of geographers, demographers, historians, economists, sociologists, political scientists)
- micro, -meso, -macro level

-importance of prior links →

macro: colonisation (past historical development), political influence, trade, cultural ties micro & meso: family and social network(s), social capital, cultural capital (knowledge of other countries, capabilities for organising travel, finding work)

-interaction of micro- (networks, beliefs, opportunities, choices of migrants themselves) and macro-structures (large scale institutional factors such as political economy, migration policies, inter-state relations, laws, structures and practices in countries (including integration, control, regulation))

Migration in the Czech Republic

- foreigner = migrant (= non-CZ-national, non-EU-national)
- Migration policy = immigration + integration + asylum
- Migrant ≠ national minority member (Acts No. 273/2001 on rights of members of national minorities and amendment of some Acts)
- Ministry of Interior

Migration in Central Europe

- homogeneous countries
- most of their history → countries of origin (more emigration)
- lower numbers of immigrants
- in 2018:
 - CZ – 5,3%
 - HU – 3,23%
 - SK – 2,2%
 - PL – 0,8%

After 1918

- First Czechoslovak Republic → ethnically mixed
 - Czech + Slovak (majority nations)
 - German minority (3 mil.)
 - Ruthenians, Hungarians, Jews, Poles
- Increase in migration and asylums
