1. Translate the following text into English.

Jak jste si možná vědomi, firma v posledních měsících zaznamenala pokles odbytu svých luxusních kabelek. Je tomu tak z celé řady důvodů, trh například zaplavilo množství padělků. Navíc, zatímco mnozí zákazníci stále spojují naši značku výlučností a přepychem, jsme si vědomi toho, že rostoucí počet lidí značku považuje značku za staromódní.

Nedávno se však naše značka stala populární u mladých umělců a fotbalových fanoušků a tento vývoj, přinejmenším v krátkodobém horizontu, otevřel firmě možnost zvýšení odbytu. Zvýšilo se však i riziko, že ztratíme naše věrné zákazníky a vysoce ceněnou imidž.

2. Underline all the form which are correct.

I quite understand how you feel.

- 1. Bye for now. I'll see you rather later / soon / obviously.
- 2. Everyone acted well, but I thought that Naomi did absolutely / fairly / particularly well.
- 3. Tony can't quite / really / surprisingly decide what he wants to study at university.
- 4. If zou work hard / extremely / hardly, I'm sure you'll be a success.
- 5. Technically / Exactly / Apparently, this is one of the best low-cost cameras currently available.
- 6. Sorry, can you speak up I can't quite / rather / really hear you.
- 7. The thatched cottage was completely / structurally / awfully destroyed by a devastating fire.
- 8. I'm leaving tomorrow early / extremely / quite in the morning, so I'll say goodbye now.
- 9. See you again soon. Yours truly / fairly / friendly, Your friend Carl.
- 10. Luckily / Really / Fortunately, we managed to catch the train at the last moment.

3. Write a new sentence with the	he same i	meaning containing	the word in	capitals.
1. I really do understand how y	ou feel.	QUITE

2. Nobody came to the party, which was unfortunate. UNFORTUNATELY 3. I didn't find the match very exciting. RATHER ..... 4. The decision was disastrous from a financial point of view. FINANCIALLY ..... 5. We really didn't expect this result. 6. Mrs Burns has agreed to provide sandwiches, which is kind of her.

KINDLY 7. This printer is of no use at all! COMPLETELY ______ 8. I can't see the end of the road very well. ..... 9. The answer is as obvious as it could be. PERFECTLY ..... 10. It's logical to suppose that the missing money must be in this room.

LOGICALLY