

Finish each of the following sentences in such a way that it means the same as the sentence printed above it.

1. They are collecting the rubbish on Tuesday this week.
The rubbish on Tuesday this week.
2. A number of trainee doctors have examined Dora.
Dora a number of trainee doctors.
3. Someone used a counterfeit key to open the security door.
The security door a counterfeit key.
4. The managing director promised me a pay-rise.
I the managing director.
5. Thanks for taking me to the station.
I appreciate to the station.
6. Tine said she hadn't been paid to appear in the play.
Tina denied appear in the play.
7. Some painters have painted the outside of our house.
We painted.
8. An optician is going to examine my eyes this afternoon.
I by an optician.
9. People believed that the car had been stolen.
The car is stolen.
10. People thought the plane had crashed in the mountains.
The plane is in the mountains.