

Unit 9 - Revision

LANGUAGE

1 Rewrite these sentences to give emphasis using the words that follow.

- 1 He didn't get the job and he lost his current job.
Not only _____ but _____.
- 2 Surveys show that our customers prefer a less formal approach.
What surveys show _____.
- 3 He has problems at home. They cause his strange behaviour at work.
It is his _____ that explain _____.
- 4 You should on no account lend your money to them.
On no account _____.
- 5 The markets have never risen this quickly before.
Never _____.
- 6 An employee can only complain about a manager in extreme cases.
Only _____.

VOCABULARY

1 Read these comments about people. Write an adjective in the box next to the description.

- 1 'Well no one can say she doesn't say what she thinks!' _____
- 2 'He always thinks things will go badly.' _____
- 3 'She really wants success – I think she'll reach the top in the next five years.' _____
- 4 'I like his attitude. He'll work late if you ask him and try any task you give him.' _____
- 5 'My boss just seems to know how I'm feeling and can guess if I need help.' _____
- 6 'They're obsessed with money and don't think if an investment is ethical or not.' _____
- 7 'The R&D department focus on detail and study things for a long time.' _____

2 Write in the missing prefix in these sentences.

- 1 The risk involved in buying fine art as an investment cannot be _____ emphasised.
- 2 She's _____ lingual with French and English as her main languages.
- 3 Sorry, but I have something _____ arranged that evening. Maybe another night?
- 4 GKN is a large _____ national with interests in many different countries.
- 5 To get the best return, it's rather _____ wise to buy shares when they are at their highest price.
- 6 One problem was that our strategists _____ estimated how long the changes would take. It took much longer than they thought.
- 7 The cheque was _____ dated to the 16th of this month.
- 8 His outburst at the meeting was utterly _____ rational.