

the meal was satisfactory	the marketing campaign was redesigned
...we've decided not to eat there again	...a disastrous launch
she does a fantastic job	the increase in prices
...recent personal problems	...sales did not fall
complaining several times	consumers are advised to tighten their belts
...he got a refund	... economic conditions worsen
the course was cancelled	I cannot join the event
...lack of interest	...I will attend a training course tomorrow night
I left work early	he wrote a letter to the CEO
...I could go to the doctor's	...he sent a copy to the press
the CEO called a press conference	sales fell a little in Japan
...explain the merger	...we had a reasonable year in the rest of Asia

IN ORDER TO	AFTER	AS A RESULT OF	MOREOVER
DESPITE	NEVERTHELESS	SINCE	EVEN THOUGH
BECAUSE OF	IN CASE	SO THAT	IN SPITE OF

Unit 14: LINKING EXPRESSIONS

- 1 The meal was satisfactory. Nevertheless, we've decided not to eat there again.
- 2 She does a fantastic job despite / in spite of recent personal problems.
- 3 The CEO called a press conference in order to explain the merger.
- 4 As a result of / after complaining several times, he got a refund.
- 5 The course was cancelled because of lack of interest.
- 6 I left work early so that I could go to the doctor's.
- 7 He wrote a letter to the CEO. Moreover, he sent a copy to the press.
- 8 Even though sales fell a little in Japan, we had a reasonable year in the rest of Asia.
- 9 The marketing campaign was redesigned as a result of / after a disastrous launch.
- 10 Despite / In spite of the increase in prices, sales did not fall.
- 11 Consumers are advised to tighten their belts in case economic conditions worsen.
- 12 I cannot join the event since I will attend a training course tomorrow night.