

LABOUR TO CUT COSTS
RAW MATERIALS
UNEMPLOYMENT EXPECTATIONS

TAXES TO SUFFER
GOVERNMENT
AVAILABILITY COMPETITION

The company makes 100 cars every day.

100 cars are made
every day.

The company made two million cars last year.

Two million cars were made last year.

They will make 3 million cars next year.

3 million cars will be
made next year.

The company has made half a million cars this year.

Half a million cars has been made this year.

The company is going to make more cars next year.

More cars are going to be
made next year.

The company is making more cars this year.

More cars are being made this year.

The company was making more cars in December.

More cars were being made in December.

The company might make more cars next year.

More cars might be
made next year.

This company can't make cars any more.

Cars can't be made by this company any more.

Five minutes with Richard Branson

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/business-17401307>