

Entrepreneur Sir Richard Branson talks to Matthew Stadlen about life as a billionaire, the most important piece of advice he ever received, what pushes him to try to break records and the closest he has ever been to death.

1. What does Sir Richard Branson love doing?
2. What does he miss about Britain when he is abroad?
3. Why does he like breaking records?
4. How did his mother bring him up?
5. What happened to him when he was crossing the Pacific in the balloon?
6. What did he do at the age of 15?
7. How does he spend most of his time now?
8. What does he think about being ruthless?
9. Is Britain a good country to do business?
10. What is his attitude to money?