

1 Complete the sentences with question tags.

- a) Let's finish the work, _____? shall we
- b) Nobody came in, _____? did they
- c) Helen has got a good job, _____? hasn't she
- d) Jasmine has never been abroad, _____? has she
- e) I'm the boss, _____? aren't I
- f) Helen seldom smokes, _____? does she
- g) Peter hardly ever relaxes, _____? does he
- h) Take it easy, _____? will you, won't you
- i) Don't work such long hours, _____? will you
- j) Nothing happened, _____? did it

2 Write the questions for the underlined parts.

- a) We arrived late because we had missed our train.
Why did you arrive late?
- b) People should leave their cars at home more often.
Where should people leave their cars more often?
- c) I didn't know Jake was back.
What didn't you know?
- d) I'll call you before you get home.
When will you call me?
- e) You should take responsibility for the decision.
What should you take responsibility for?
- f) Hank has just made an appointment with his doctor.
Who has Hank just made an appointment with?
- g) Camilla is taking advantage of Mike.
Who is Camilla taking advantage of?
- h) When she got home last night, she was feeling tired.
How was she feeling when she got home last night?
- i) I lost my copy of the Alchemist, which had been signed by the author.
Which copy of the Alchemist did you lose?

3 Write the indirect questions using various beginnings. (e.g. Can you tell me...)

- a) Which scientist discovered the radioactive element radium?
Could you tell me which scientist discovered the radioactive element radium?
- b) When was the barb wire patented?
I'd like to know when the barb wire was patented?
- c) What is paper made from?
I was wondering what paper is made from?
- d) What does ozone hole refer to?
Can you tell me what ozone hole refers to?
- e) In which sport would you use a chucker?
I'd like to know in which sport you use a chucker?