1 Complete the gaps with question tags.

1. Everything went very smoothly at today's presentation, _____?

2. Everyone's on board, _____?

3. There's no alternative, _____?

4. Alfie's never been responsible for such a huge project, _____?

5. Somebody will be able to fix this, _____?

6. Let's arrange a meeting for next Thursday, _____?

7. I'm having lunch with their CEO tomorrow, _____?

8. These new sales figures are hardly promising, _____?

9. There was an awful lot of traffic this morning, _____?

10. Emma used to work for a bank, _____?

2 Ask about the underlined part of a sentence.

1 The company has promoted three employees.

2 The company has promoted three employees.

3 The company has promoted three employees.

4 Their company was founded in 2002.

5 Their company was founded in 2002.
Could you tell me
6 Their company was founded in 2002.

7 Occasionally, deliveries are delayed for technical reasons.

8 Occasionally, deliveries are delayed for technical reasons.

9 The receptionist has to reply to plenty of emails every day.

10 The receptionist has to reply to plenty of emails every day.

11 We're having a meeting with the other party on Friday.

12 Helen has worked for the same company since 2000.
I'd like to know