

to slow down
to go out of (fashion, business)
to find out
to break up (a company)
to take over
to set up
to set out (on a journey)
to turn down (an offer)
to break out
to take (a company) down
to take on sb.
to bump up (the cost)
to shut down
to run short
to put forward
to draw up (a schedule)
to hand over (some work)
to carry out (a project)
to put up with (difficulties)
to come up with (an idea)
to look forward to (a holiday)
to think st. over
to look for st.
to cut down (costs)
to give up (trying)
to go on
to back up
to put off (a meeting)
to grow up