

Unit 7: Listening - Preview

Complete the summary. You need one word for each gap.

Marvin Hunt's area of expertise is (1) _____; all over Europe. He deals with (2) _____ that arise out of employment. He for example (3) _____ major corporations about their (4) _____ or (5) _____ between workers and employers. Their next (6) _____ concerns a group of female employees who claim to be (7) _____ than the male employees for the same work.

Louise Grainger was (8) _____ in law and in life sciences. She profits from her education background as she specializes (9) _____. At the moment, companies are (10) _____ from lawyers and environmentalists in whose opinion the operations of the companies may be (11) _____ or creating health problems for some people. Louise helps businesses to (12) _____. At the moment she is advising a petroleum company (13) _____ the local water supply.

Marsha Maspero specializes in (14) _____ (e.g. brand names or the (15) _____ belonging to an organisation). They have a network of associates in countries around the world providing them with (16) _____ in international markets. Marsha's speciality is the (17) _____. She has just finished (18) _____ a client from the sports industry whose photographs were used on a commercial website (19) _____.

Samuel Chase's area of expertise is (20) _____. All businesses have to make sure that their products do not (21) _____ to their consumers. Samuel and his colleagues advise companies who are (22) _____. That could involve even defending the company (23) _____. At the moment, they are helping a (24) _____ company who may face (25) _____ resulting from complaints about one of their best-selling drugs.