1. Read article on page 26 in the Workbook and prepare answers to the following questions.

- 1. What are the outcomes of Yankelovich partners' study?
- 2. How many ads is the average American subjected to every day? Where?
- 3. What was the goal of the report by Deutsche Bank?
- 4. What is the conventional wisdom about the advertising industry?
- 5. How has the effectiveness of TV commercials changed?
- 6. What happens when times get rough?
- 7. What are the returns from traditional ad media according to Robert Shaw?
- 8. In what different ways do ads effect sales?

2. WB, Unit 6 Listening. Listen and fill in the gaps.

9. I didn't tell him the truth, it was too difficult for me.

10. I can't wait to go home at the weekend.

I failed ...

I look ...

Procter and Gamble, v	which helped to	TV soap operas as a ne	w way to market goods, is lo	oking once again for	ways to reach cons	sumers. Three years ago it	an operation	ı called Tremor to	an army of severa	al hundred thousand American t	eenagers. It uses these "trem	nors" to marketing
the teenagers get to he	ear about and use new thi	ings before many of their Getting trends	etters to buy (or be given	n) new products in order to influ	ence a is	hardly a new idea. So-cal	led "early adopters" are a similar	r group, much sought-after b	эу consumer electronics of	companies in order to giv	ve their new products a good sta	rt. But there is a wider group	p whicl =	", short for proactive consumer	-
	ne most powerful of all.	, 1	1 1	,
0 1	-	, is completing a nine-country st	udy of prosumers, which it s	savs car
		group. They can be found		, =
= =		hey say to their friends and colle six to 18 months later. The	_
		not necessarily be a prosumer o		'y
0,		, .		1
		itional ads and
	-	are going to pay for it. Half of ne internet. If they want to influe	ence prosumers, companies l	have to be extremely open abo	out providing information	n.
		transform the first one. Use a ge	rund or infinitive form.
1. Do not forget to post	the letter.
Remember 2. I haven't said anythin	no like that I am sure
I do not remember.
	w we spent the holiday in	the south.
I can't forget
	not take the opportunity.
I regret	1
5. I get up early every d I am used	lay.
6. I was working too ha	ard I needed a break
I stopped	ra. I necaca a break.
7. I won't watch the fil	m, it is not very good.
There's no
8. Let's launch the proje	ect right now.
I suggest				