3. Complete the text by writing one word in each space.

Mr Jeffries, I have decided against a prison sentence in your case. You may walk free from this court on (1) that you report to Chesham police station every Friday for the next six months. Should you fail to (2) so, you will be given one warning; and if you persist (3) failing to meet this obligation, you will return to this court for a harsher sentence. (4) you can present good reason why you were unable to report to the station, you will (5) yourself in severe trouble. If you are (6) to attend because of illness, please note that a medical certificate must be produced, signed by your doctor, proving your state of health. You should realise that (7) for your previous good conduct, I would (8) had no hesitation in imposing a prison sentence. And I shall not forget that if your friend had (9) intervened in the fight, you might (10) seriously injured the defendant.

4. Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given.

- a) If you are in London by any chance, come and see me. happen
If youcome and see me.
- b) The fire was brought under control thanks to the night-watchman. for
If it hadn'tgot out of control.
- c) Dick is in prison because a detective recognised him. if Dickhand't recognised him.
