THE DAY OFF

It was such a pretty day in August. I was somewhere in the middle of Pennsylvania in the reservation called Equinunk. We were overwhelmed by wilderness. the closest town was one hour far. I was sitting in classical yellow school bus with my love next to me. We were about to go to Skinners. The beautiful place by the river formed by thousands of huge rocks. When we came there, sun was high on the sky. One of the most beautiful days in my life was about to start. We were enjoying summer, love and water. These memories ll stay forever in my
