

L2 hiring new employees

Process represents hiring new employee. If on some department requirement for new employee occurs, HR department with assistance of external recruitment agency finds some candidates, their CVs are evaluated and suitable one is invited for an interview. If he confirms the invitation, he is interviewed and if is successful, contract is signed and department which needed this employee trains him.