

Evening Drawing

Week 5: Caricatures

Helena Lukášová, Hana Pokojná

Caricatures

- Portraits with exaggerated features that maintain likeness

History of caricatures

- Leonardo Da Vinci was fascinated by people with differently shaped heads, curious faces and unusual features. He would turn them into tragi-comic figures
- “[Leonardo Da Vinci] was so delighted when he saw curious heads, whether bearded or hairy, that he would follow anyone who had thus attracted his attention for a whole day, acquiring such a clear idea of him that when he went home he would draw the head as well as if the man had been present.’ (Giorgio Vassari, 16th century).

Political Satire

You can base caricature on:

1) Features

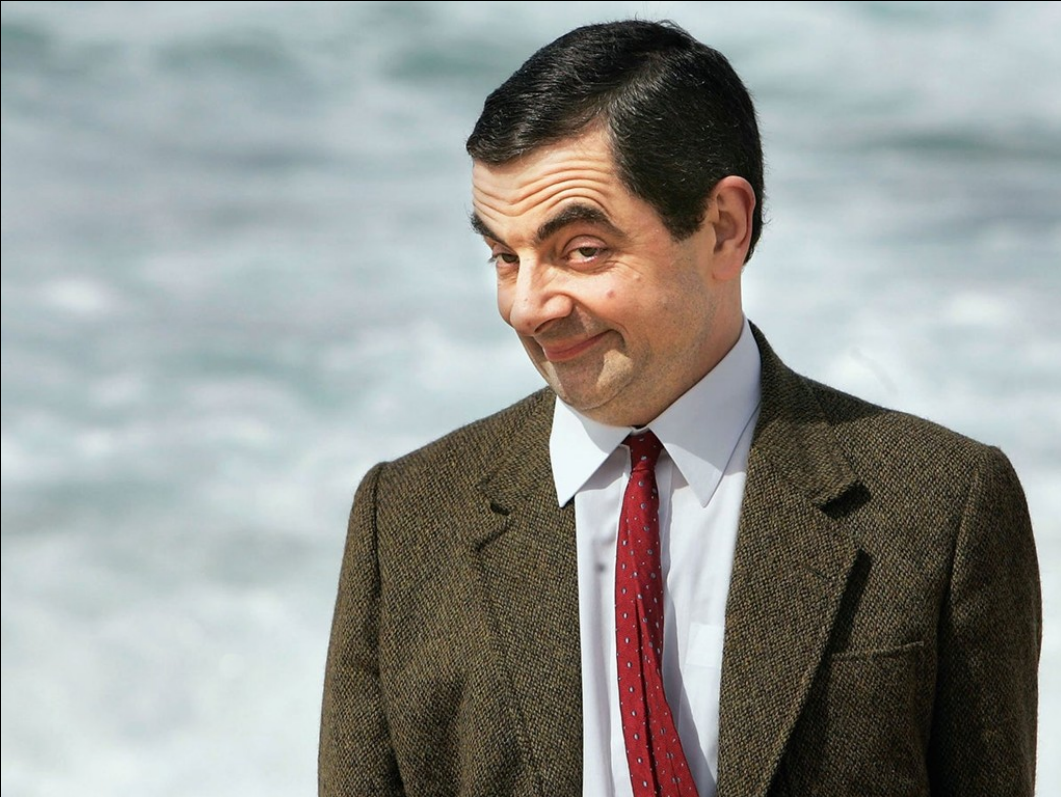

https://www.lidovsky.cz/relax/lide/mr-bean-konci-jeho-predstavitel-nechce-aby-zestarl.A111009_132103_lide_spa

<https://webneel.com/daily/16-mr-bean-caricature>

2) Facial expression

<https://www.independent.co.uk/arts-entertainment/films/news/rowan-atkinson-mr-bean-b1782513.html>

<https://twitter.com/yeocartoons/status/875979186577358848>

3) Actions

<http://clipart-library.com/clipart/yck85jXcE.htm>

<https://eu.usatoday.com/picture-gallery/opinion/2019/09/02/political-satire-humor-funny-trump/2191836001/>

