

Vocabulary focus: verb-adjective combinations; idioms

Quick Fix 71 – verb + adjective

STUDENT WORKSHEET

FALL FLAT, SEE RED, GO BLIND ... are examples of verb adjective expressions.

ACTIVITY. Complete the sentences using appropriate forms of the words from the list below:

- | | | | | |
|------------|--------------|-------------|--------------|-------------|
| RUN | FALL | TURN | SLEEP | COME |
| SEE | BREAK | LIE | GO | MAKE |

1. Remember, this file is top secret. sure no one reads it.
2. The project started to wrong when a few team members left the company.
3. Being offered this job was like a dream true.
4. I'm really bad at telling jokes – every time I tell a joke, it flat.
5. I don't think we should expect any profit in the next few months – I think we would be happy if we managed to even within the next two years.
6. Because of the drought most wells in the village have dry.
7. The bank robbers decided to low, not spending any money and generally trying not to attract attention.
8. Something needs to be done about the homeless rough on the streets of our city.
9. They were happy for a year, but then their relationship sour and they broke up.
10. Drivers who can't drive always make Simon red.

