PV284 Colloquium Project

Author 1   Author 2   Author3

November 2023

1   Project brief description

In this section please briefly describe the main project structure and preferably add schematics. List of used components comes here.

2   Project solution

In this section please describe project details, progress, difficult points and their overcome. In case of collaborative work of more students please describe contribution of individual group members here.

3   Conclusion

Lessons learned during work on on the project comes here.

4   References - if needed

References are required only in case you are using your own hardware or software not used before in the IoT introduction lab. Please put here direct URL to documentation of used components (not only main web page of manufacturer) or software libraries.

5   Appendixes

5.1   Software of node A

5.2   Software of node B

5.3   Software of node C