

Grammar revision

Choose the best word to fill in the gap, use it in the correct form (making all the necessary grammatical changes.) There are 6 extra words which you do not need to use.

~~Do~~ lose/disallow/ jog / fly / break / say / recover/clear/play/ slam/ sit overcome/ win / beat/ throw / cause / discuss / inform / drive /conduct

Sorry, I can't join you tonight, I _____ from a bad flu and don't feel fit enough yet.

Our professor _____ the research for 5 years.

I want to lose weight, that is why I _____ every morning and evening.

Karin is a successful skier. She _____ 5 downhill competitions.

I am sure the referee _____ the goal.

The basketball player _____ the ball and scored.

Tom _____ tennis since he was 6.

Jelena Dokić _____ Martina Hingis in Wimbledon in 1999.

The students _____ the exam on Monday at 8.

When we arrived to the stadium, our team _____ 0-1.

For each sentence choose the right answer (A, B, or C).

Twenty candidates showed up at the interview but only _____ of them got the job.

- A) little B) all C) a few

Go home and wait there _____ I call you.

- A) until B) while C) if

6. Have you seen the new player _____?

- A) already B) still C) yet

7. Students usually do not have _____ money.

- A) many B) much C) no

8. I saw Sue walking in the park a moment ago. She _____ be away on holiday.

- A) must B) may C) can't

9. Smoking is strictly prohibited, which means, you _____ smoke here.

- A) needn't B) shouldn't C) mustn't

Use the verbs in brackets in a correct form:

If the athlete (win) _____ the race, he will become the world's champion.

I would go to see the tournament if I (be) _____ you.

I (play) _____ volleyball with you if I could.

You (lose) _____ weight if you did some sports.