

Written Exam – master programme:

I. Language work:

Modals (can, must, should, need, could; must have been, can't have been, should have been...)

Conjunctions (unless, as long as, therefore, despite, although, however...)

Gerund and infinitive (e.g. try to do – try doing)

Adverbs and Adjectives (e.g. free – freely; surprising – surprised)

Conditional I, II, III

Phrasal verbs

Sentence transformation

So, such, and such a

Few(almost none) and a few (some); little (almost none) and a little(some).

II. Vocabulary (based on the topics covered in autumn and spring term)

Academic collocations

Newspaper language

Sport disciplines

Sport injuries

Health preservation

Resuscitation process

Components of fitness

Overtraining

III. Writing

Summary of a text, max. 100 words

IV. Discourse functions

Presentations and talks – signposting language, structure of academic presentations