Essays

Writing style:

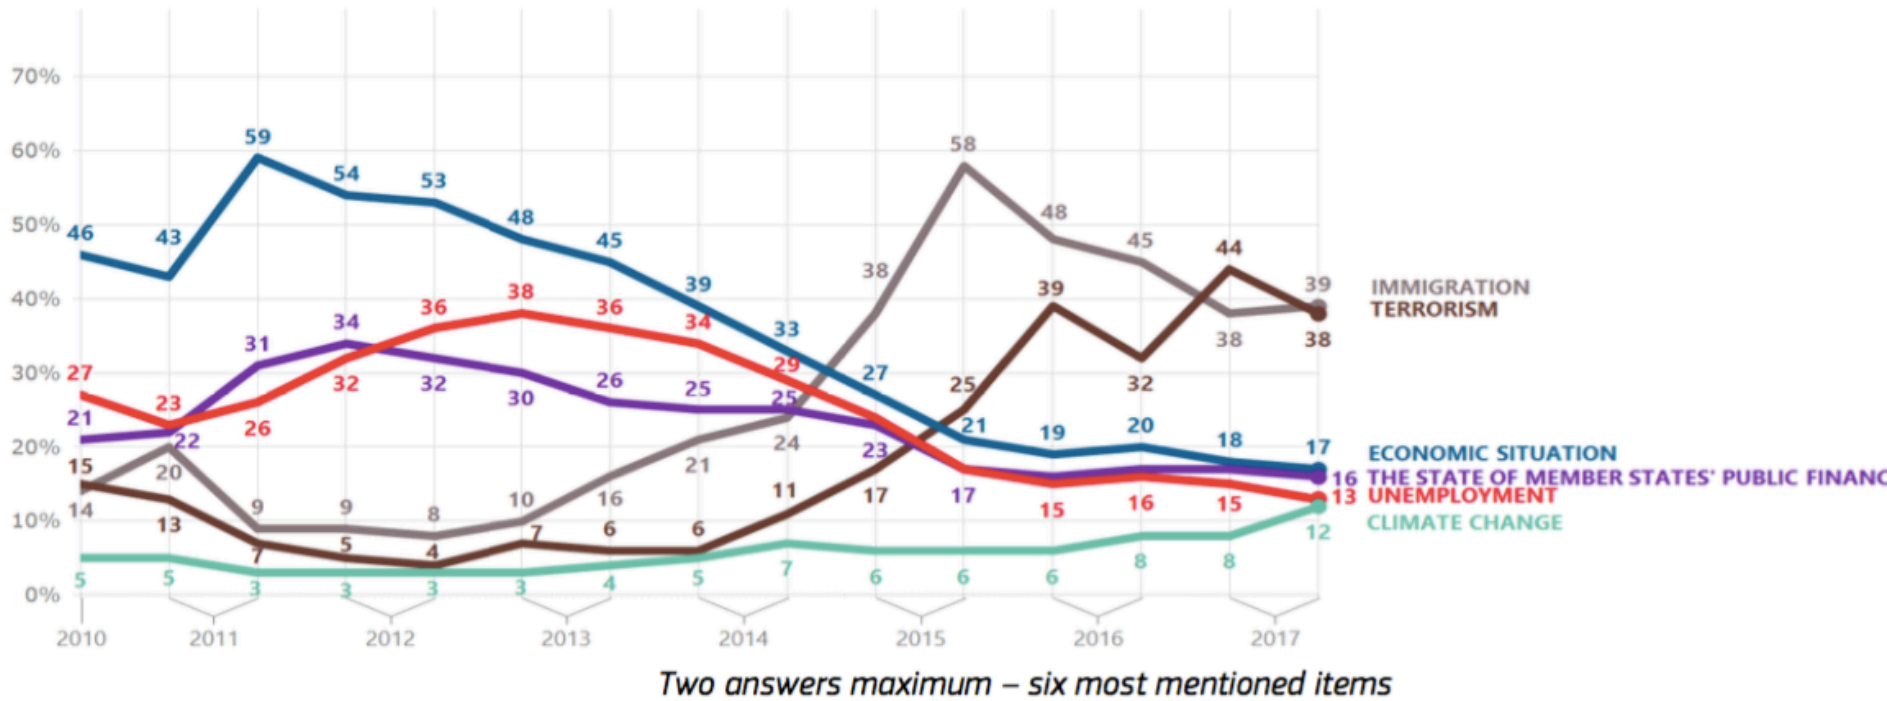

- Clarity trumps!
- Get rid of words that do not change the content of a sentence
- Avoid “gambling words” (obviously, probably, certainly, undoubtedly)
- Use active voice!
- Use short sentence

Have a clear structure (title, intro, main part, conclusion)

Documentation (give references)

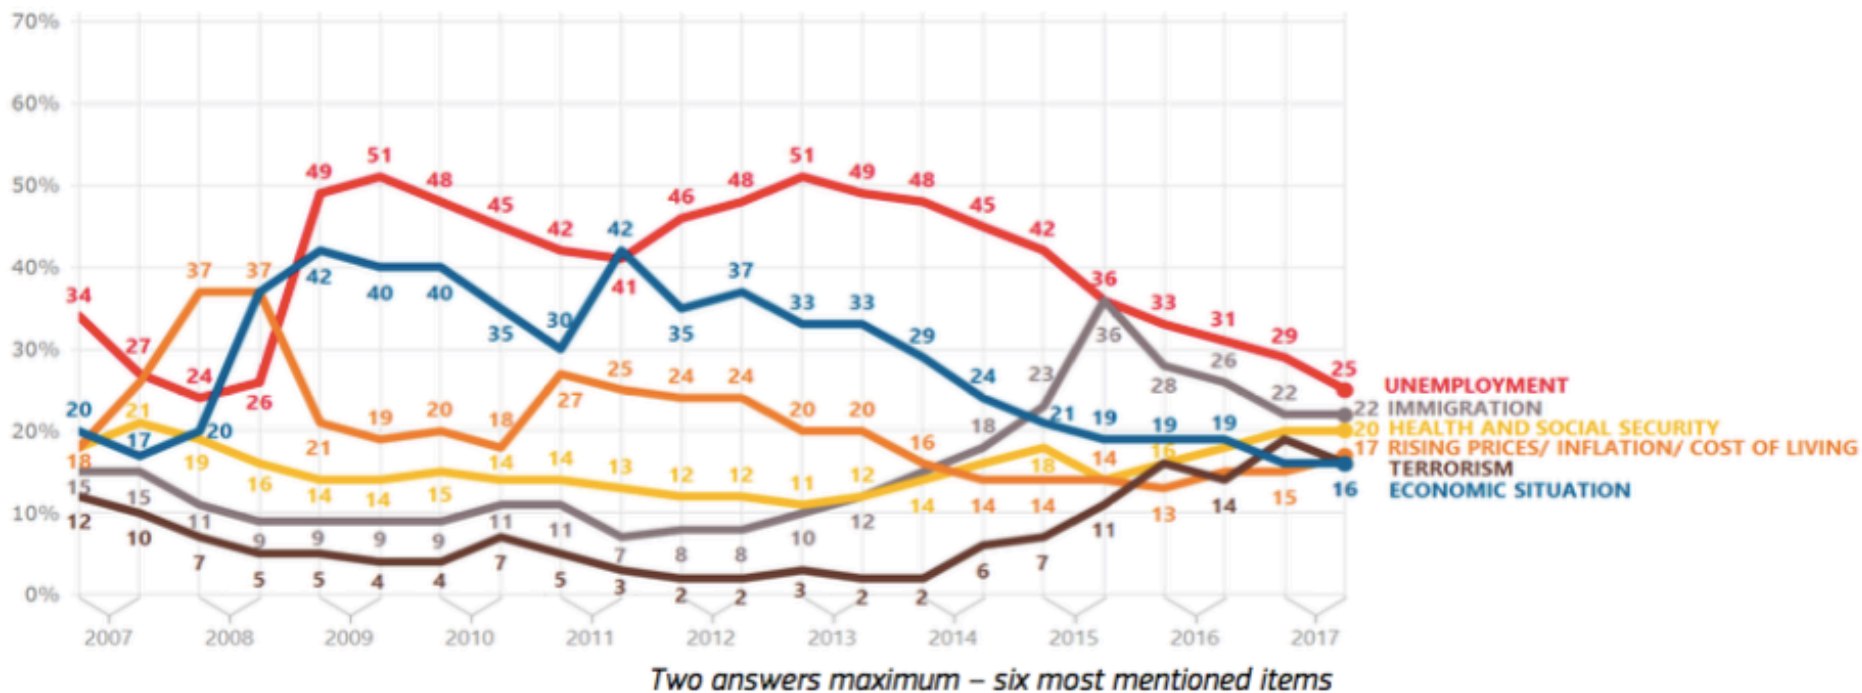

→ You need to make reading your paper as easy as possible

Citizens' main concerns at European level

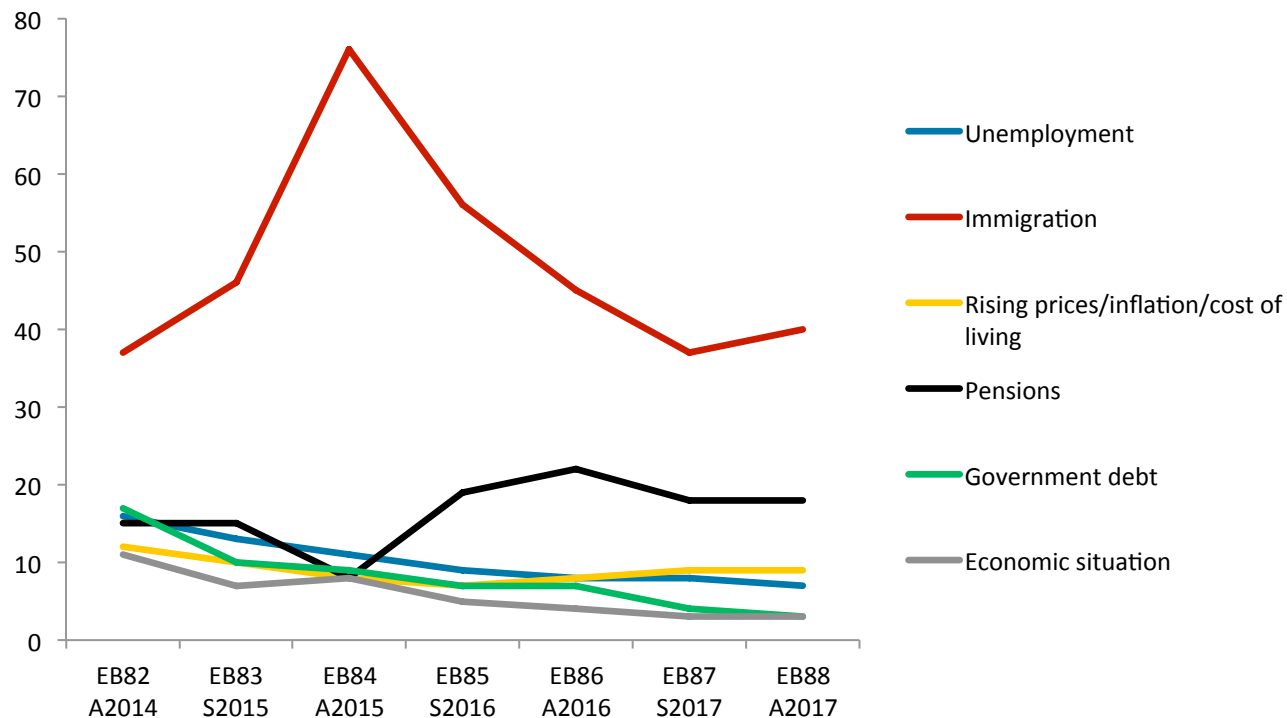

Citizens' main concerns at national level

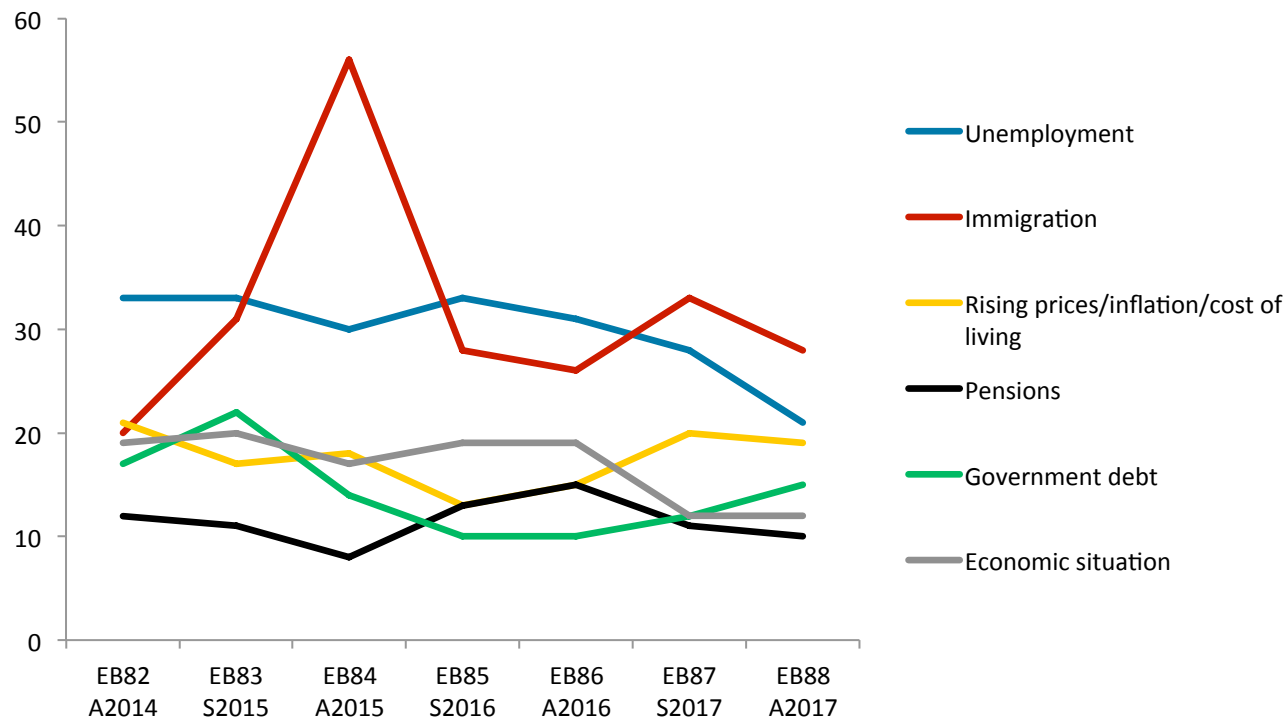

QA3a What do you think are the two most important issues facing (OUR COUNTRY) at the moment?
(% - EU)

Citizens' concerns about immigration on the national level in Germany

Citizens' concerns about immigration on the national level in Austria

Number of (non-EU) asylum seekers in the EU (2015-2016, thousands of first time applicants)

Political Responses in Austria and Germany

- 4 September 2015: Austria (Faymann) and Germany (Merkel) announce that migrants would be allowed to cross the border from Hungary into Austria and onward to Germany.
- 14 September 2015: Austria (following Germany) instituted border controls (Austrian Army) of its own at the border with Hungary.
- 28 October 2015: Austria decided to build a fence along its border with Slovenia (91 km) to "be able to control the migrants in an orderly manner" (Minister of the Interior Johanna Mikl-Leitner)
- Snow-ball effect leading to the official closure of the Western Balkan route
- 20 January 2016: Austria announced it would limit the number of asylum applicants to 37,500 in each of the next four years
- 19 February 2016: Austria started putting a daily cap of 80 asylum seekers allowed to enter the country to apply for Austrian asylum

Polarization of the immigration issue

- New year's eve in Cologne (2015) as the tipping point?

Polarization

- Welcome culture vs. cultural protection?

Example I: Train of Hope Vienna

- Grass roots associations starting in August 2015 (-December 2015)
 - Since October 2015: officially registered association
 - Aim: “welcoming refugees in a human, non-bureaucratic and open-minded way”
 - Volunteers providing refugees with food, cloths, information, WIFI and medical support at Vienna central railway station, Westbahnhof, (later from Nickelsdorf – Salzburg)
 - Setting-up infrastructure needed (with other NGOs and Austrian Federal Railways)
 - Future projects on integration planned
- Private initiative replacing public authorities

Example II: Pegida

- Patriotic Europeans Against the Islamisation of the Occident
 - German nationalist, anti-Islam, far-right political movement
 - Founded in Dresden in October 2014
 - Against immigration and Lügenpresse (lying press)
 - Accuse authorities of not enforcing existing laws
 - Links to NPD, AFD and Liberal Direct Democratic People's Party (founded in June 2016)
 - Participants from the right-wing sector, hooligans and concerned citizens
 - Motivation: dissatisfaction with the political situation (54%), "Islam, Islamism and Islamisation" (23%), criticism of the media and the public (20%), and reservations regarding asylum seekers and migrants (15%)
 - Male-dominated group with a relatively high level of education
- Channelling general disappointment based on social insecurity and xenophobic attitudes

- Many newly employed in the ministries are from fraternities/right wing groups
- “Germania song book” affair
- Kickl: “concentration of migrants”
- Attacking public broadcasting

Agenda of the new government

- Symbolic politics: change of the constitution
- “Die Republik Österreich bekennt sich zu einem wettbewerbsfähigen Wirtschaftsstandort, als Voraussetzung für Wachstum und Beschäftigung.”
- Weaker state in economic terms but law and order (police, border protection)
- Deregulation
- Against minorities (refugees)
- Social benefits for the well-off part of the society
- Ambivalent relationship to CEE countries
