

Brexit

James Beeson

Head of Policy

British Embassy Prague

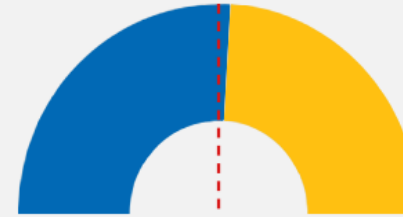

Outline

- The vote
- The negotiations
- Legislation
- The Withdrawal Agreement + Political Declaration
- UK Parliament procedure
- Next Steps
- Future Relationship
- No Deal

The Vote – 23/

UK votes to LEAVE the EU

Leave
51.9%
17,410,742 VOTES

Remain
48.1%
16,141,241 VOTES

0 results left to declare

LEAVE UK votes to LEAVE the EU

Electorate 46,501,241

Turnout 72.2%

Rejected ballots 26,033

How results are calculated

Nation results

England

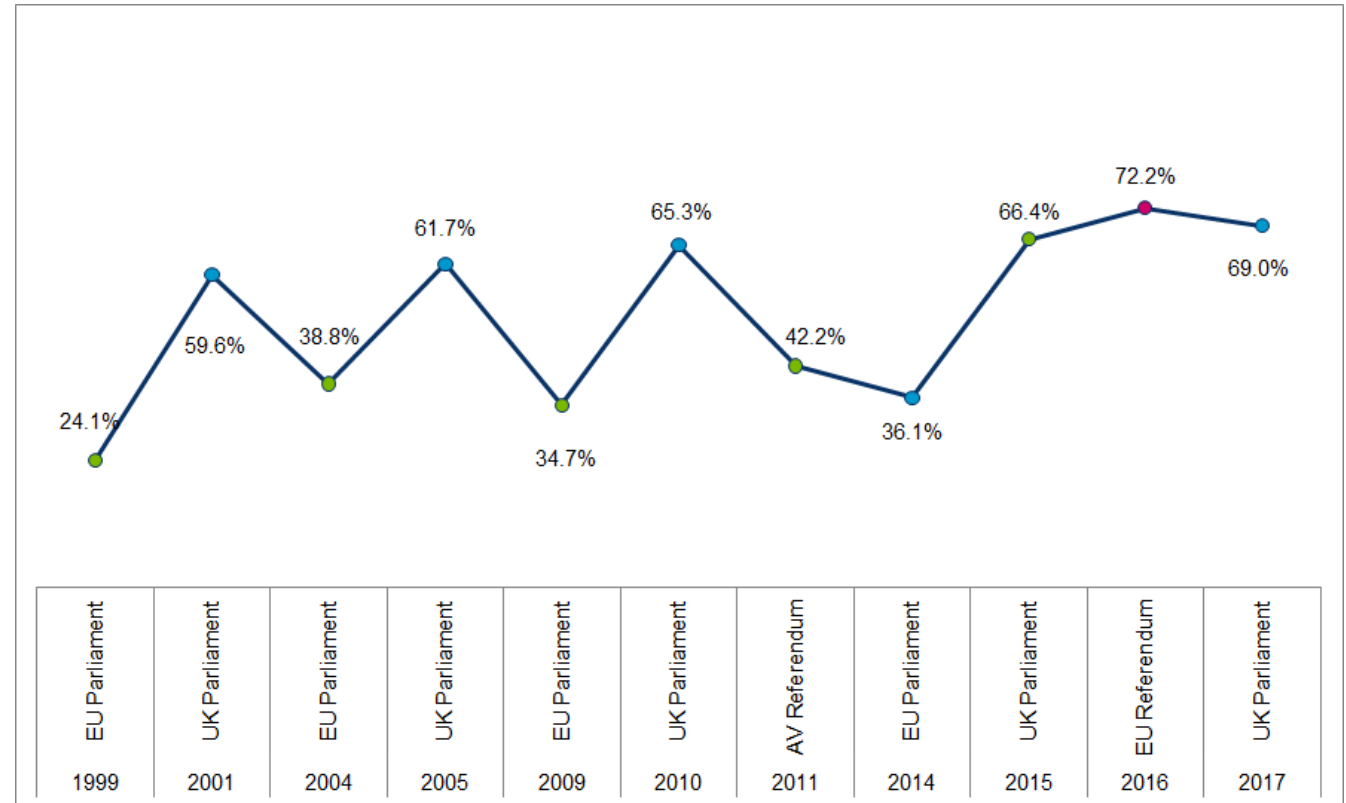

Northern Ireland

Scotland

Wales

The negotiations

- UK preparation to start negotiations
 - Conservative Party leadership elections
 - Theresa May becomes leader of party – 11 July
 - DExEU formed – 14 July
- Launch Article 50 – 29 March 2017
- Two year deadline set

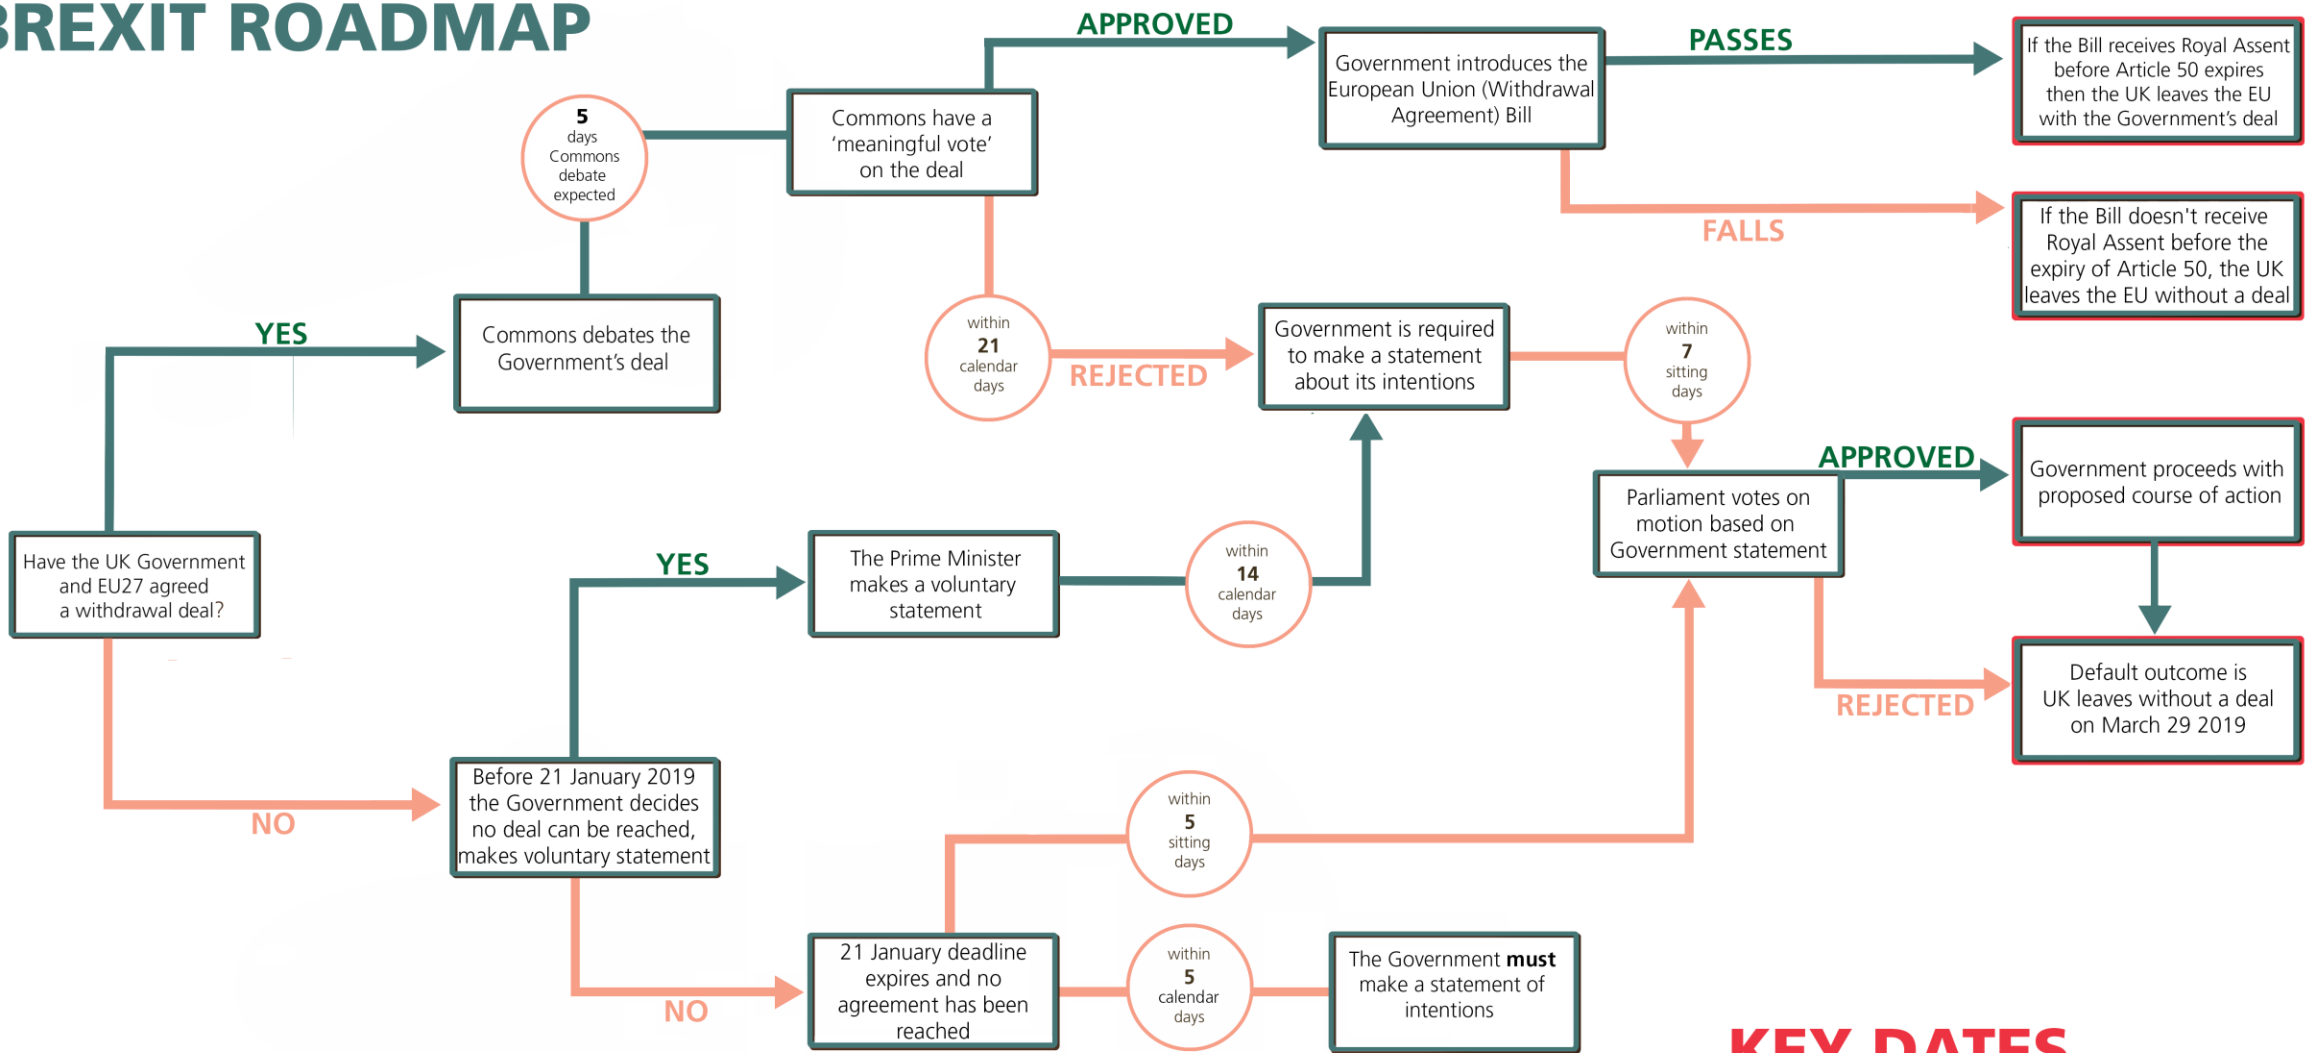

The Withdrawal Agreement + PD

- Withdrawal Agreement
 - Two year transition Period
 - Continues relationship
 - Backstop for Northern Ireland
- Political declaration
 - Sets out terms for future relationship
- Finally agreed on 25 November 2018
 - European Council

UK Parliamentary Procedure

- Three things needed to ratify agreement:
 - Meaningful Vote – agree in principle to WA & PD
 - Passage of Brexit Legislation – put legislation in place for WA
 - CRaG – To ratify an international treaty

BREXIT ROADMAP

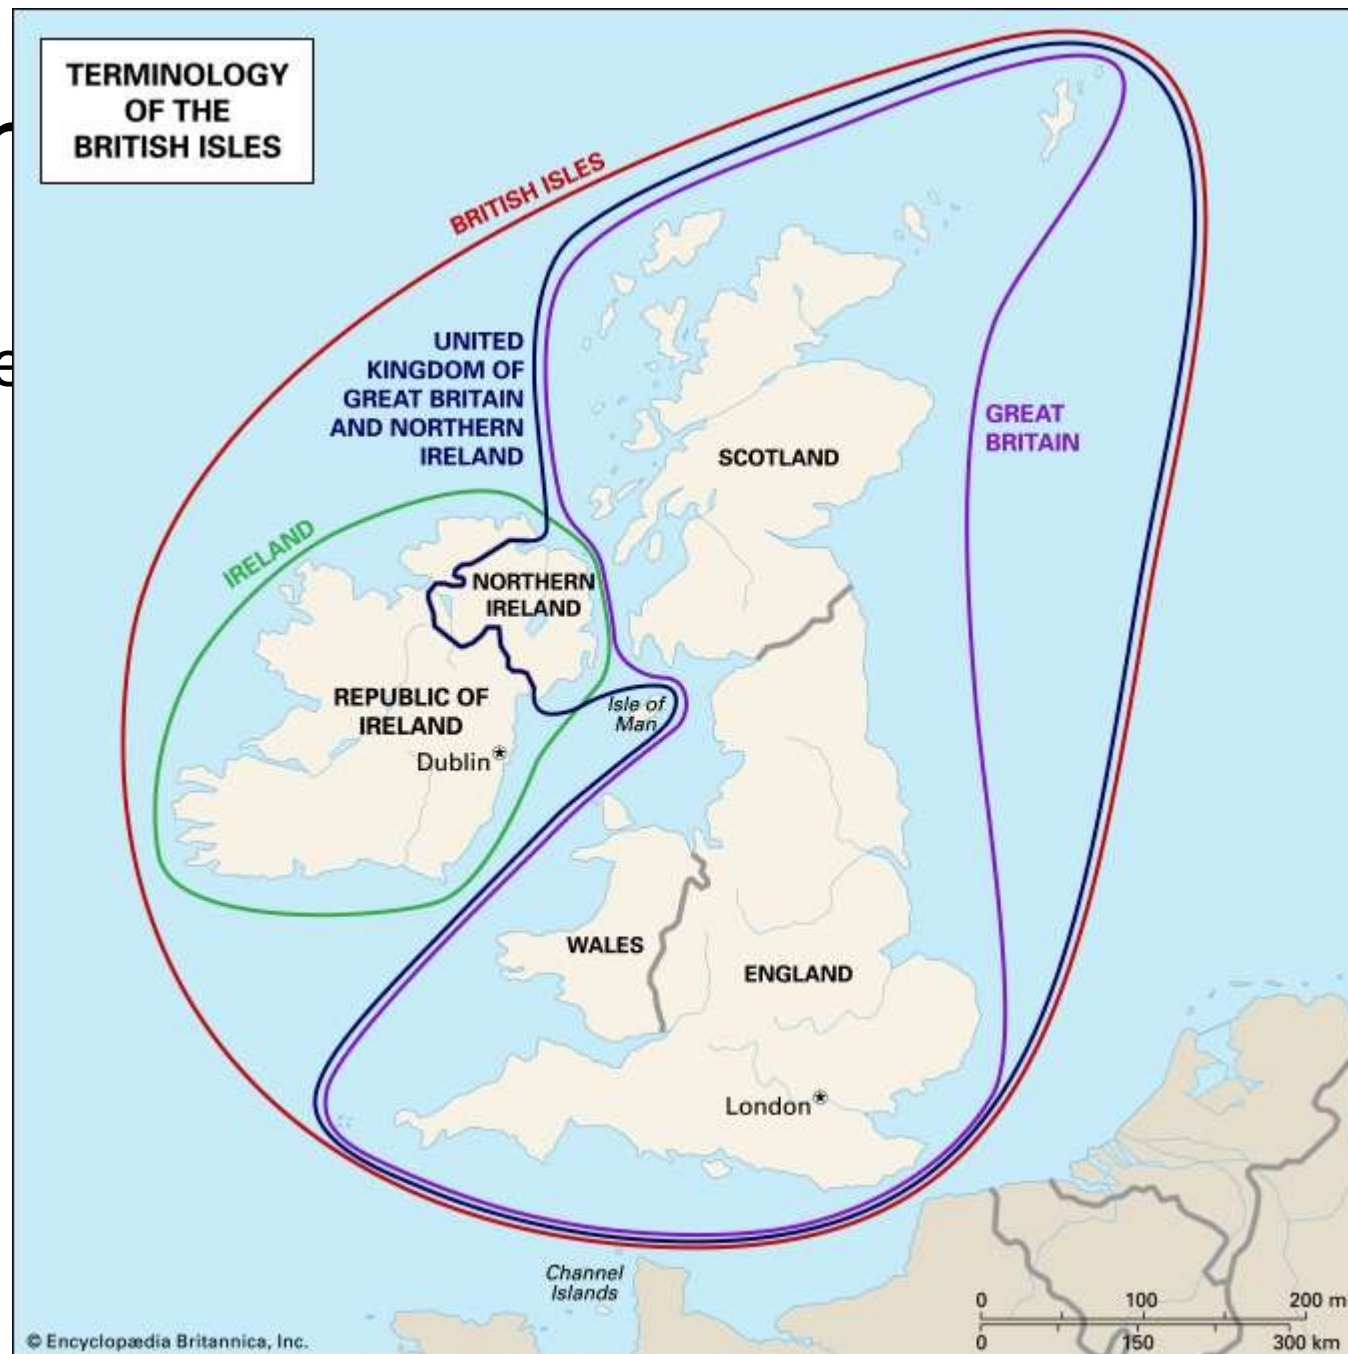

KEY DATES

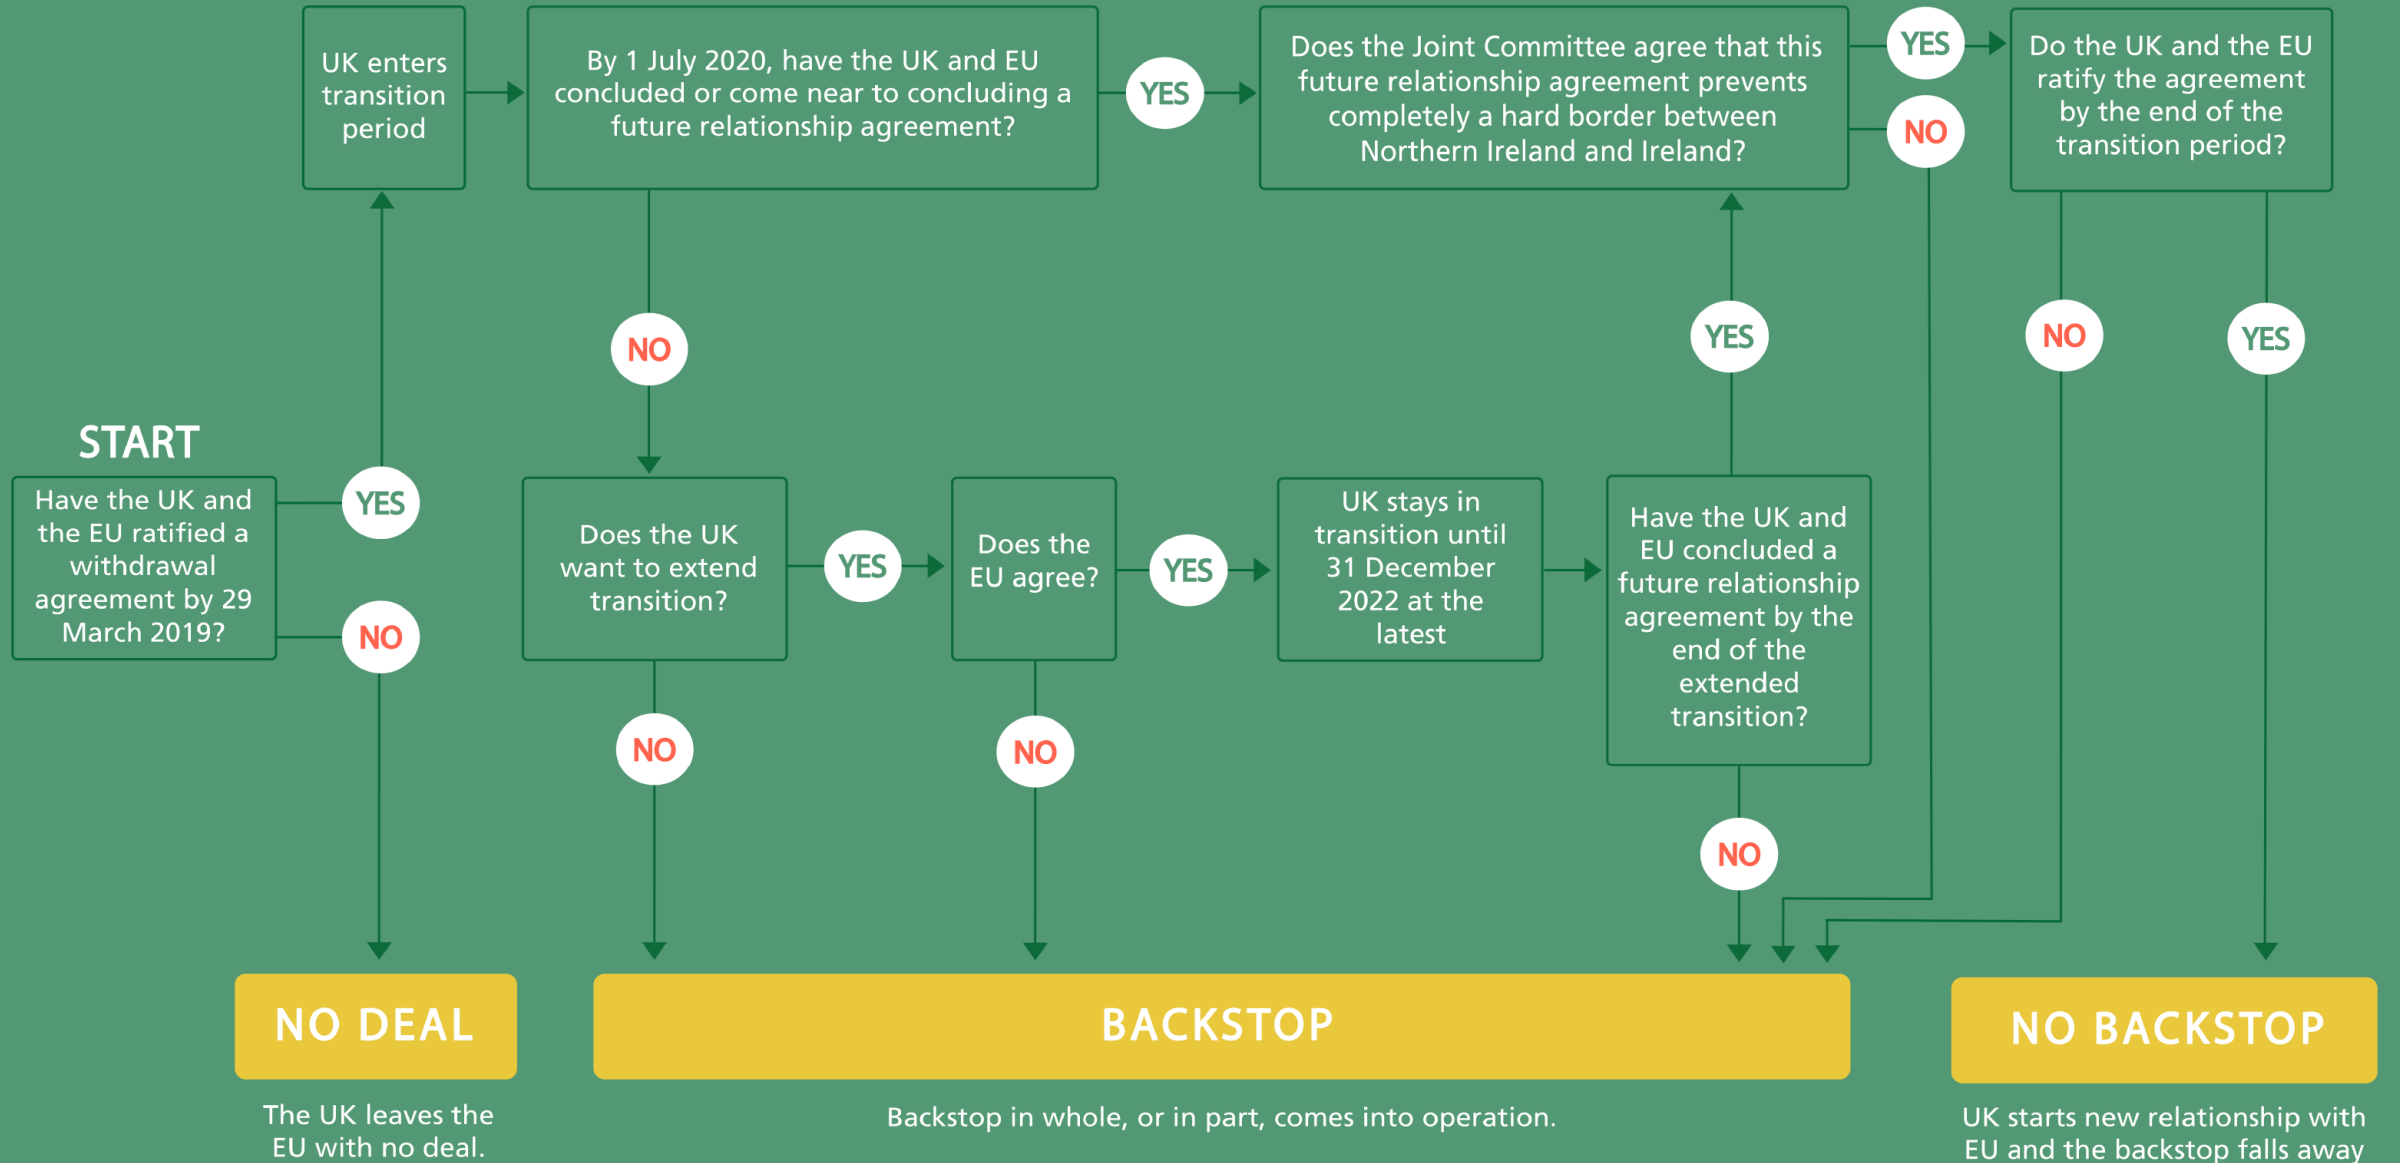

UK Parliament

- Stuck on the Me
- The backstop .

BREXIT: BACKSTOP SCENARIOS

Next Steps

- Secure support for a Meaningful Vote
- Put legislation in place
- Negotiate Future Relationship

Next Week

- Currently finding solution to the backstop
- Meaningful vote – by 12 March
- No Deal vote – 13 March
- Article 50 Extension – 14 March

No Deal

- UK would cease to be an EU country after 29 March
- Drop out of EU institutions and frameworks
- Impact on
 - People
 - Business

Future Relationship

- Withdrawal Agreement gives time to agree a future relationship
- Political Declaration gives the structure for this
- Implementation period runs to end-December 2020
- One opportunity to extend this by 2 years – agree by July 2020