

GENDER PERSPECTIVES IN SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

Kristýna Pešáková – pesakova@fss.muni.cz

Lucie Čechovská – 144430@mail.muni.cz

SPRING 2021

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE, ROMA COMMUNITY

Domestic and intimate partner violence against Roma women

Forced sterilization of Roma women – institutional violence

Homophobic violence against Roma LGBTQ+ people

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AGAINST ROMA WOMEN

Data on Roma women's experience of violence from their male partners are very scarce.

Study: Health Risks Related to Domestic Violence against Roma Women (Michal Kozubik, Jitse P. van Dijk and Ivan Rac, In: International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health 2020)

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AGAINST ROMA WOMEN

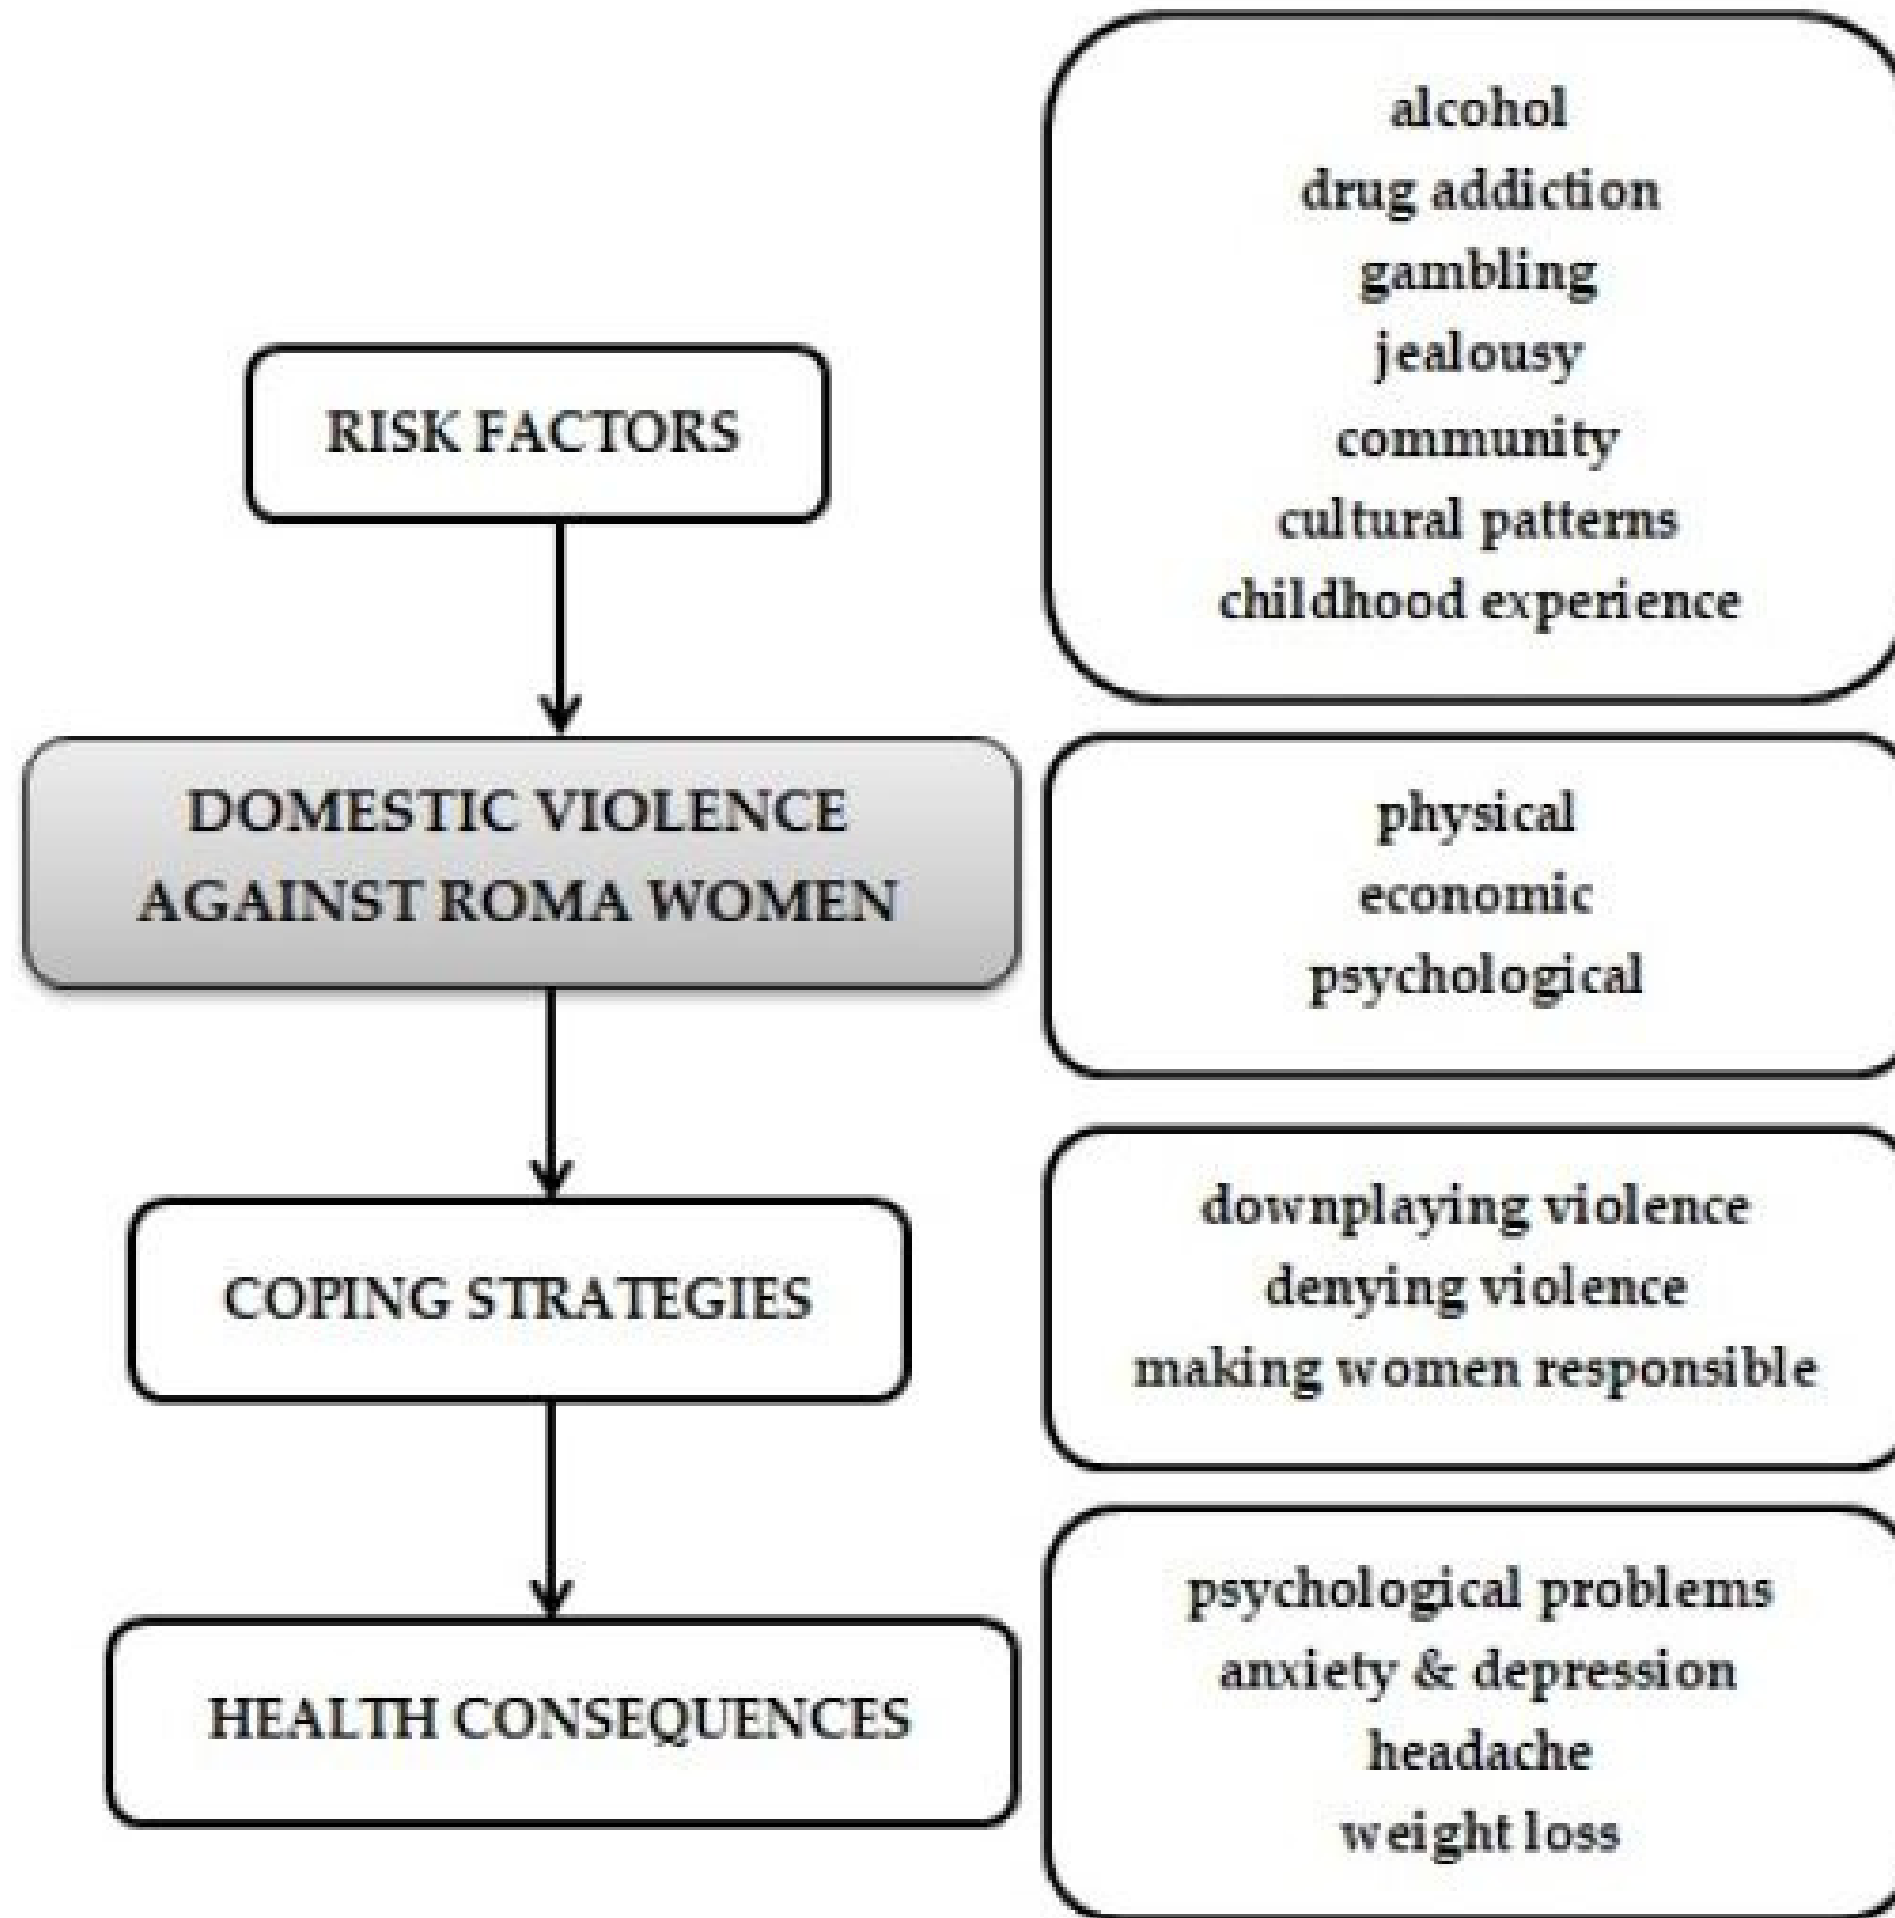

Figure 1. Violence against Roma women in Slovakia.

FORCED STERILIZATION

Forced sterilization is the involuntary or coerced removal of a person's ability to reproduce, often through a surgical procedure referred to as a tubal ligation. Forced sterilization is a human rights violation and can constitute an act of genocide, gender-based violence, discrimination, and torture.

WHO statement: Eliminating forced, coercive and otherwise involuntary sterilization (link)

HOMOPHOBIC VIOLENCE AGAINST ROMA LGBTQ+ PEOPLE

David Tišer, <https://www.araart.cz/en/roma-lgbt>, short movie Roma boys)

- gender-based violence (intersectionality of sexual orientation, gender, ethnicity, class)

GROUP DISCUSSION

introduction

- what I will write about (topic)
- what each chapter will be about (structure)

theoretical part

- the aim of the work
- main research question
- definition of terms regarding my research question and theoretical approach

methodology

- qualitative/quantitative research
- what methods/method
- approach to research

empirical/analytical part

conclusion

bibliography

(attachments)

N E X T L E S S O N

3 1 S T M A R C H