

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Professor John Wilton

Lecture 8

The ‘gender dimension’ and E.U. social policy

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U. Lecture 8

1. Gender policy and E.U. social policy
2. Gender policy – harmonisation and convergence or ‘mutual recognition’?

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

1. Gender policy and E.U. social policy

- invades and interacts with many other areas of social policy
- Article 119, Treaty of Rome 1957, referred explicitly to the right of women to equal pay with men

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 1

- Treaty of Rome (1957)
  - free movement of goods, capital
and labour
- Social Democrat West German
Chancellor Willy Brandt
- E.C. Summit at The Hague,
Netherlands, Dec.1969

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

- Articles 100 and 235, Treaty of Rome 1957, enabled European Commission to prepare directives on equal pay AND equal treatment of citizens

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

- Treaty of Rome, 1957, established a framework for promoting the harmonisation of national legislation to the social and economic advantage of women in paid work

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

- the impact of factors external to the EEC in 1960s
- social, cultural and economic factors in wider Europe

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

1974 - EEC Social Action Programme

- implementation of equal pay principle one
of priority actions

1981 - European Commission set up
Advisory Committee on Equal Opportunities

1983 – European Network of Women established – forum for women’s NGOs

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

1981 - European Parliament created Standing
Committee on Women's rights

1989 - Community Charter of the Fundamental Social Rights of Workers

“Equal treatment for men and women must be assured. Equal opportunities for men and women must be developed.”

(Social Charter, incorporated into Maastricht Treaty 1992)

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

1989 - Community Charter of the Fundamental Social Rights of Workers referred to the need for measures “enabling men and women to reconcile their occupational and family obligations
with a view to achieving greater equality of opportunity.”

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U. Lecture 8

1990 – European Women's Lobby
formed

- by end of 1990s this group represented around 2,700 women's organisations (including European Network of Women)

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U. Lecture 8

1990s – 2 important developments for
E.U. gender policy;

1. adoption of measures at E.U. level
to help parents reconcile occupational and family life;
2. The ‘mainstreaming of gender’

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

2. Gender policy – harmonisation and convergence or ‘mutual recognition’?

- initial primary concern of EEC on gender policy was economic and ‘fair competition’ – in that respect, was attempt at convergence and degree of harmonisation

Political Issues and Social Policy in the E.U.

Lecture 8

- where E.U. gender policy has been extended beyond the workplace there has been more flexible implementation and ‘mutual recognition’ of differing approaches (i.e. through cultural differences)