Three Cities in History

- Gdansk – German city, long history, full of amber..., on the river Vistula, the town of the beginning of the Second World War, anti-communist revolts in docks (Lech Walesa), used to be a Free City (after Versailles)
- Gdynia – seaport (to Helsinki, Karlskrona), trolleybuses and trains important
- Sopot – spa town, parties, (in Kashubian means 'mud' or Slavic 'spring')
