

Overview PP and Presentation Rubrics

Overview PP rubric	5-4	3	2-1	0
Relevant context for the article	Relevant context to explain extra-article realities for the reader	Adequate	In the paper but only minimal	Irrelevant context, too much of facts without connection to the main argument
Main argument of the article and argumentation	Article was understood fully, the argument formulated and the main supporting evidence succinctly summarized	Adequate	In the paper but only minimal
Analysis	Bias of the author of the assigned text teased out (who they are and why this article), alternative method/ cultural / regional approach relevant	Adequate	In the paper but only minimal	No analysis at all. Repeating of the article
Formal requirements	More than 5 quality sources, solid writing and structure of the paper logical, main argument of the student clearly formulated	Adequate	Present but minimal	Low quality sources, no additional sources at all.

Presentation	5-4	3	2-0
Relevant content - relevant context, main arguments and evidence summary presented	Excellent	Adequate	Minimal to nonexistent, low quality
Formal requirements - slides supporting the argument, time of delivery maximum of 15 minutes, communication clear	Excellent	Adequate	Minimal to nonexistent, low quality
Student position clearly stated, argued, supported with evidence	Excellent	Adequate	Minimal to nonexistent, low quality