

Informed Consent Form

Introduction

You are being asked to participate voluntarily in the research project on best pedagogical practices described below. You are encouraged to take your time in making your decision. It is important that you read the information that describes the study. Please ask the study researcher or staff to explain any words or information you do not clearly understand.

Why is this study being done?

You have been asked to participate in a study examining your educational experiences in an ACUE-enhanced flipped and inclusive classroom.

Approximately three hundred participants (over 18 years old) will be enrolling in this study. You are being asked to participate in the study because you met the sampling criteria. If you decide to take part in this study, your involvement will last about 20 minutes to complete the questionnaire.

What is involved in the study?

If you agree to participate in this study, the research team will be asked to complete the questionnaire. However, your identity will be protected and will not be reported by linking you to your educational experiences in the classroom.

What are the risks and discomforts of the study?

There are only minimal known or anticipated risks or discomforts associated with participation. Your privacy and confidentiality might be minimally affected.

Are there benefits to taking part in this study?

You are not likely to benefit from taking part in this study. This research may help us understand ACUE pedagogy's effectiveness in higher education institutes.

What are my costs?

There are no direct costs.

Will I be paid to participate in this study?

You will not be compensated for taking part in this study. However, you will receive extra points (10 points) as a reward. Additionally, all participants will be entered into a raffle to win one of twenty US$5 Amazon e-gift cards. The e-gift card will be sent to winning email addresses.

What other options are there?

You have the option not to take part in this study. No penalties will be involved if you choose not to participate in this study. Extra points will not affect your standing and grade in this class. Alternative 10 points can be given for non-participant.

What if I want to withdraw or am asked to withdraw from this study?

Taking part in this study is voluntary. You have the right to choose not to take part in this study. If you do not participate in the study, there will be no penalty or loss of benefit. If you choose to take part, you have the right to skip any at any time. However, we encourage you to talk to a research group member so that they know why you are leaving the study. If there are any new findings during the study that may affect whether you want to continue to take part, you will be told about them. The researcher may stop your participation without your permission if they think being in the study may cause harm.

Who do I call if I have questions or problems?

You may ask any questions you have now. If you have questions later, you may contact Dr. Kenneth C. C. Yang at +1(915) 747-6517 and cyang@utep.edu. If you have questions or concerns about participating as a research subject, don't hesitate to contact the UTEP Institutional Review Board (IRB) at (+1-915-747-6590) or irb.orsp@utep.edu.

What about confidentiality?

Every effort will be made to keep your information confidential. Your personal information may be disclosed if required by law. Your participation in this study is confidential. None of the information will identify you by name. All records will be entered with an assigned case identification number that cannot be associated with you. No individual information will be released in the presentation and publication of the survey results. Only aggregate data will be reported to ensure the anonymity of your participation. The results of this research study may be presented at meetings or in publications; however, your name will not be disclosed in those presentations. Every effort will be made to keep your information confidential. Your personal information may be disclosed if required by law. Organizations that may inspect and copy your research records for quality assurance and data analysis include, but are not necessarily limited to: The sponsor or an agent for the sponsor, Department of Health and Human Services, UTEP Institutional Review Board. Because of the need to release information to these parties, absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. The results of this research study may be presented at meetings or in publications; however, your identity will not be disclosed in those presentations.

The researcher will maintain all records in a secured and locked UTEP location and will be used only for research purposes. No other people will have access to these records. Your questionnaire responses and identities will only be available to the P.I. and his research team. The data will be destroyed five years after the publication of the research findings.

Mandatory reporting

If information is revealed about child abuse or neglect, or potentially dangerous future behavior to others, the law requires that this information be reported to the proper authorities.

This short survey aims to help the instructor learn more about your learning experiences in this course. Your responses will help improve this class. Your responses will also be anonymous, and the instructor will not be able to link your responses to your identity. To ensure 100% confidentiality, please do not include personal information in your responses. Please take a screenshot and send the screenshot image to cyang@utep.edu to receive 10 points extra points. Your email will also be entered in a raffle to win a US$5 Amazon gift card. Thanks for your help in making this course better.
