

USING DATA JOURNALISM FOR COUNTERING DISINFORMATION AND COVERING THE WAR

29. 11. 2023, 16:00 – 17:30

room AVC, Masaryk University | Faculty of Social Studies, Joštova 10 | 602 00 Brno |

REGISTRATION

Galyna Pastukh will present experience of well-known and recognized Ukrainian organization Texty.org.ua on countering disinformation and covering the war topic by developing innovative tools and data visualisations and projects created over the last years and on the information level: identification and analysis of Russian disinformation and propaganda.

GALYNA PASTUKH

Galina is the Deputy Director of Texty, a think-tank and independent media based in Ukraine, it is one of the top civil society organizations globally doing research in the online space. They have developed cutting edge solutions for online monitoring, reporting and visualization of disinformation in online media outlets and social media networks.

Galina joined TEXTY team in 2014 and is responsible for the project development and international cooperation. Main fields of her interests are: countering disinformation, data journalism, open data policy, public finance and procurement.

checkregion-ua.info