

Radio Prague

January 11, 2010

=====

New center for cancer research opens in Brno

-----

A new cancer research center has opened in Brno which should develop medication tailored to the specific needs of each cancer patient based on their DNA. Fifty-eight experts will be employed at the research center, which will focus on the most severe types of cancer and operate on a yearly budget of 50 million crowns. Researchers will also work on developing a vaccine against cancer.