

MUFL

Public Health Emergency Law:
Domestic and International

Judith W Munson
Visiting Adjunct Prof from JMLS

CLASS #3 OUTLINE + DOCUMENTS

Thursday, March 17, 2011

- Students: Reports on Monitoring Areas--Topics and Countries/Regions

THEN, why international linkages are important to Public Health Preparedness:

- Simulated Transatlantic Bioterrorism Attack: Atlantic Storm
<http://www.atlantic-storm.org/flash/index-b.html>
- Review the Public Health Institutions and Personages in the EU and Cz Rep
Ppt by Instructor
- Report on the Public Health System in the Czech Republic and the Legal Advisory Board at the Ministry of Health

Be familiar with the basic outline of the health and public health laws in the Czech Republic. See the summary prepared by the WHO and posted on the EU Commission on Health and Consumer Protection website:

<http://www.euro.who.int/Document/E86823.pdf>

For information on the health care systems of all EU countries and accession candidate countries, go to:

http://ec.europa.eu/health/ph\_information/dissemination/hsis/hsis\_13\_nhs\_en.htm

Be familiar with the Pandemic Flu Plan of the Czech Republic

- Threats specific to the EU and the Cz Rep -- All

If time permits, discussion of the Skype Assignment:

- The Skype call to a US law student in Chicago at the JMLS (See separate document: The Skype Assignment)

Unless having done so has been verified in advance, all students will download Skype.com IN CLASS and test it out with each other before the Instructor departs. All students in the Masaryk seminar will be required to be Skype-ready as a requirement of the course before the Instructor returns to the U.S.

Skype Coordinator:

Anna Mikulski

Candidate for Bachelor Degree 2012

The College of the University of Chicago

Vice-President of the Student Group: Polish-American Student Association

