

Citizenship is the ..... of a person recognised under the custom or law of a state that bestows on that person (called a citizen ) the rights and ..... of citizenship. Such rights and privileges include the....., work and live in the country and the right to return to the country, besides other rights. A citizen may also be subject to....., such as a .....in the army. A person may have ..... citizenships and a person who does not have citizenship of any state is said to be .....

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Citizenship>

multiple	Privileges
Status	certain duties
right to vote	stateless
	duty to serve

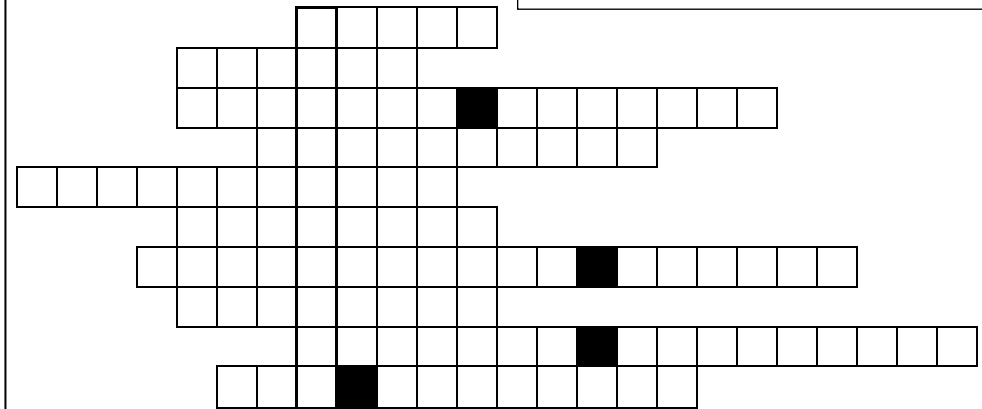

1. Pozměnit
2. Tajné hlasování
3. Hlasovací místnost
4. Cenzura
5. Svrchovanost
6. Občan s trvalým pobytem
7. Základní práva
8. Volební právo
9. Nekalé praktiky
10. Předčasné volby

Citizenship is the ..... of a person recognised under the custom or law of a state that bestows on that person (called a citizen ) the rights and ..... of citizenship. Such rights and privileges include the....., work and live in the country and the right to return to the country, besides other rights. A citizen may also be subject to....., such as a .....in the army. A person may have ..... citizenships and a person who does not have citizenship of any state is said to be .....

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Citizenship>

multiple	Privileges
Status	certain duties
right to vote	stateless
	duty to serve

1. Pozměnit
2. Tajné hlasování
3. Hlasovací místnost
4. Cenzura
5. Svrchovanost
6. Občan s trvalým pobytem
7. Základní práva
8. Volební právo
9. Nekalé praktiky
10. Předčasné volby