

VII. Limitations of the Copyright

Case-law and material to study:

ECJ case Infopaq International v. Danske Dagblades Forening (C-302/10)

http://unctad.org/en/docs/iteipc200610_en.pdf

Tasks and questions (26th March):

- 1) What is the three-step test? In which international treaties and conventions we can find this legal concept? Where we can find the three-step test in EU documents?
- 2) What limitations of the copyright you can find in your jurisdiction in the field of the education and quotations?
- 3) Does your jurisdiction recognize the exception of private copies? If so, under what circumstances you can legally download the file from the internet?
- 4) What limitations of the copyright does your jurisdiction recognize in the field of libraries?
- 5) How would you define the difference between compensated and uncompensated exceptions in the Berne Convention?
- 6) What limitations of the copyright you can find in the InfoSoc Copyright Directive of the EU?
