How a Small Business Attorney Can Help

Whether you are starting a business as a _____ proprietor, as a member of a _____, or as a new corporation, a business law _____ can assist you at every step of the process, to help your business open its doors and succeed.

No matter what type of business startup issue you face, a business attorney can help you find the right solution for your new business, including:

Choosing the right business structure for your needs (sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, limited _____ company, etc.);

Finding sources of capital and applying for a _____;

Purchasing an existing business or _____;

Drafting and filing business registration and business name paperwork;

Negotiating property purchase or commercial _____ agreements;

Securing necessary permits and licenses from local, state, and federal government;

Complying with local, state, and federal _____ obligations;

Drafting and/or reviewing employment policies and contracts for potential _____;

Helping you understand the intellectual property rights and _____ of your business.
