

Consumer Law - Contracts

1. Complete the two tables. Find the second part of the English expression and then write the Czech equivalent.

English expression	Czech equivalent Implied by Supply of Breach of Merchantable
Express
Reasonable
To be entitled to Intermediate
To take
Time
To waive

English expression	Czech equivalent
Low profit
Assert
Underweight
Overcharge someone
Lost in.....
Common
Implied
Discharge
Express
At a reasonable
Within a reasonable

2. Fill in the sentences with a correct word.

a) When you sell goods you must make certain that they fulfil certain _____. You must be sure that goods are of _____ - that is, goods need to reach a basic level of quality given the price of the goods and any description that is provided with the goods.

b) A Term may either be _____ or _____. An _____ term is stated by the parties during negotiation or written in a contractual document. _____ terms are not stated but nevertheless form a provision of the contract.

c) Unless „a time is of _____“ clause is included in your contract, a _____ time for performance will be implied if a problem arises as to any timing issue.

d) _____ allow an innocent party to claim damages on breach and also to terminate a contract if the breach were sufficiently serious. However, no one is entitled to reject something because it is not perfect.

3. Explain and give examples

Merchantable quality

Implied / express terms

Conditions

Intermediate stipulations

Time of the essence / reasonable time