

INTRODUCTION TO ENGLISH FOR INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW 2009/2010: colloquium tasks

Task 1: - based on Portfolio 1, p.12 (p.14), Introduction to English for International Trade Law, 2009 (2005)

Prepare an advertisement for a job vacancy in an international trade organisation. The advertisement should cover the following areas:

- who we are
- what we do
- what we offer to the applicant
- what qualifications the applicant should have.

Length: 200 words.

Task 2: - based on Portfolio 5 and Portfolio 6, p.31 (p.36)

The recommended site is not valid anymore, you are free to use any other resources – please cite them, and find the information to complete the task:

- Definition for a contract
- Requirements for a contract to be valid
- Basic requirements for legality
- Requirements for a contract to be enforceable
- When and how is a contract formed?
- When may a party escape obligations of a contract?
- What is the meaning and effect to be given to the terms of a contract?
- What is the remedy to be given for breach of a contract?

Task 3: - based on Portfolio 8, p.41 (p. 47)

Choose ONE of the cases and translate it:

http://www.uncitral.org/uncitral/en/case_law/abstracts.html

DEADLINE: 8th January 2010 – do předmětové “Odevzdávárny” v ISu

Thank you. ☺

Š.B.