

ESSAY QUESTIONS***

1. Explain how an effective military justice system can impact alleged war crimes trials.
2. Describe the essential components of an effective military justice system
3. What are some of the challenges to taking action against civilians accompanying the military in a combat region?
4. What are some different ways to deal with civilians who are charged with committing war crimes as a part of a conflict?
5. Discuss the reasons why military and civilian personnel involved in commission of war crimes must be held accountable for those allegations of criminal conduct

* You have to choose ONE of these questions; the word limit for an essay is 1000 words. Please submit your essay by 20 January 2010.