

13 The law and consumers

consumer law
consumer rights consumer complaints the supplier is in breach of the agreement the contract has been implied by law implied terms in consumer contracts express terms provide services with reasonable care at a reasonable cost within a reasonable time to discharge the contract intermediate stipulations to be responsible for the lost goods to waive one's right exemption clauses
in the case of loss, damage or injury product liability faulty goods to pursue an action in the tort of negligence to threaten to put harmful substance in food product to balance the interests of a consumer against those of a producer it is subject to perjured testimony realtor's listings representations concerning corporate stock privity of contract

promisor and promisee obligor and obligee vendor and vendee statute of limitations an action is commenced the cause of action has accrued the aggrieved party after the expiry of the time voluntary discontinuance the law on tolling of the statute to invalidate rights

Definitions

consumer conditions
intermediate stipulations
exemption clauses
product liability
privity of contract
statutory requirements

Questions

- 1 What does the consumer have to show to win the case before court?
- 2 Describe the implied terms for goods and services.
- 2 List the parties to a contract.