Dear grandson,

I hope you are well, studying hard and taking care of yourself. I miss you! ♥

I must confess, I got into big trouble. I wanted to be all modern & cool, so I took up this internet course. As homework, I was supposed to create a webpage, so I made a pretty page about our church and the people who go there. I tried to make it funny and all, but suddenly I found out I was prosecuted (!!!) for a CRIME (!!!) and I had to pay 3400 SEK.

My lawyer says there is some European court which can still set me free, but I don't understand any of the details. Last week, I got a letter with a judgment but I don't understand it and my lawyer is not answering his phone? Can you please help me and explain it? Will you be so kind?

I am so proud of you, studying law! I would blog about it, but now I'm scared to do anything!

Love, Grandma Bodil
