

INJURIES

I. Your friend has a few marks on his body. Match the name of the mark with the explanation of its origin.

1. This BITE on my leg	a. I got when I was operated on for appendicitis.
2. These BLISTERS on my feet	b. I got when I went on a walking tour in too tight shoes.
3. This BRUISE on my eyelid	c. I got when I was hit by my friend during our quarrel.
4. This CUT on my thumb	d. I got when I fell down while running.
5. This GRAZE on my knee	e. I got when I suffered from measles.
6. This SCAR on my belly	f. I got when I cutting onions with a sharp knife.
7. This SCRATCH on my arm	g. I got when I was attacked by a fierce dog.
8. These SPOTS on my cheeks	h. I got when I was playing with my cat.
9. This STING on my chin	i. I got when I went to take some honey from the beehive.

II. Choose the correct answer.

- He got that on his forehead when he ran into an open cupboard door in the dark a few days ago.
a) blister b) bruise c) scar d) sprain
 - Mary was by a wasp while she was gathering some pears.
a) bitten b) eaten c) stung d) wounded
 - Be careful you don't yourself when you are cutting those roses.
a) pick b) prick c) sting d) wound
 - I fell off my bicycle when I was five and I still have a on my knee.
a) freckle b) scar c) hole d) scratch
 - He got a terrible on the head when he forgot to bend as he went through the low doorway.
a) bump b) hunch c) ripple d) wrinkle
 - This dates from my operation last year.
a) cut b) scar c) scratch d) sore
 - A sword will only draw blood if it actually the skin.
a) pierces b) pricks c) plunges d) thrusts
 - I have a on my leg where you hit me.
a) blister b) bruise c) hole d) wound
 - She cried so much that her face became
 - If you are so senseless as to go on long walks in tight-fitting shoes, you must expect to get
- a) blisters b) bruises c) scars d) scratches